

June 27, 1953

Dear Daddy:

On June 24, 1953, Helen went to Los Angeles for the convention but came back last night. We are fine so is Helen. When Wayne has to go to the dentist are you coming down to pick him up or is somebody else going to?

I wrote a letter to Grandmother and so now I am writing one to you. We thought we would go down town today to see Peter Pan and Bear Country but we couldn't because the theater opens at six o'clock. But we will probably go on Saturday and over

Well that's all for now but please write to me.

Love

Margaret
