[Letter, July 8, 1949]

Office of The President

July 8, 1949

MR. LUNDBERG:

Confirming a telephone conversation with Mrs. Stockton, the following categories of employees are to be exempted from the list of those who must sign a loyalty oath before they can be paid by the University: Foreign scholars and researchers, and all non-citizens; visiting teachers from other universities in both regular and summer sessions; readers, itinerant farm workers, and other help who are on a casual basis; minors and appointees without pay.
