OTHERS

Lord, help me to live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray
My prayer shall be for others.

Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true;
And know that all I do for Thee
Must needs be done for others.

Let self be crucified and slain,
And buried deep, and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again,
Unless to live for others.

And when my work on earth is done,
And my new work in heaven begun,
May I forget the crown I won
While thinking still of others.

Others, Lord, yes, others,
Let this my motto be,
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.
---Charles D. Meigs.

SCHOOL TEACHERS TO SPEAK AT FELLOWSHIP
TONIGHT

Several of the Caucasian school teachers have consented to speak to us at the fellowship tonight. It will be most interesting to hear from their viewpoint about our Christian life in this center. Remember! It's seven-thirty tonight.

MIDWEEK SERVICES with Bible study and prayer fellowship needs just as much of your support as other activities of your church. Spend your Thursday evenings with us and enjoy the peace and comfort which comes from a fellowship with God.

THE TRADITIONAL "BIG GAME" between Stanford and California will be the incentive for the "college night" theme for singspiration this Tuesday. College songs and yells, and "half-time" entertainment will be features of the evening.

WITH A THANKSGIVING MOTIF a social is being planned for Tuesday Nov. 24th by the Social Committee. Reserve this Thanksgiving social in your date book.

Man-Making

We are all blind, until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilded goes?
In vain we build the work, unless
The builder also grows.

--Edwin Markham

GRANT ME THIS!

O God,
Through all the life that will fill today
May I keep my head:
Never aloof from friends in work,
Nor lost to self in play,
Morning, night and noon,
May I keep myself in authority.
May happiness be mine
But not at cost of sadness to another.
Let eagerness to learn
And willingness to meet responsibility,
And clean ambition, too,
Become my habits.
I would not be ruled by chance.
Or follow always where another leads the way;
But learn to steer my course
By compass points of reason.
And grant me this, my final,
My most earnest prayer of all:
Teach me to know my God.
Amen.

Our thanks this day we give to Thee,
For health and for Thy love so free,
For friends so true and home so dear,
For being so close and near.
We thank Thee for Thy blessed Son,

THE CHURCH'S CHALLENGE TO YOUTH

The call of the hour is not for lower but for higher standards of Christianity....Lowering the standard spells defeat. The bill of exaction cannot be satisfied by writing in fifty or eighty where the requirement calls for one hundred.

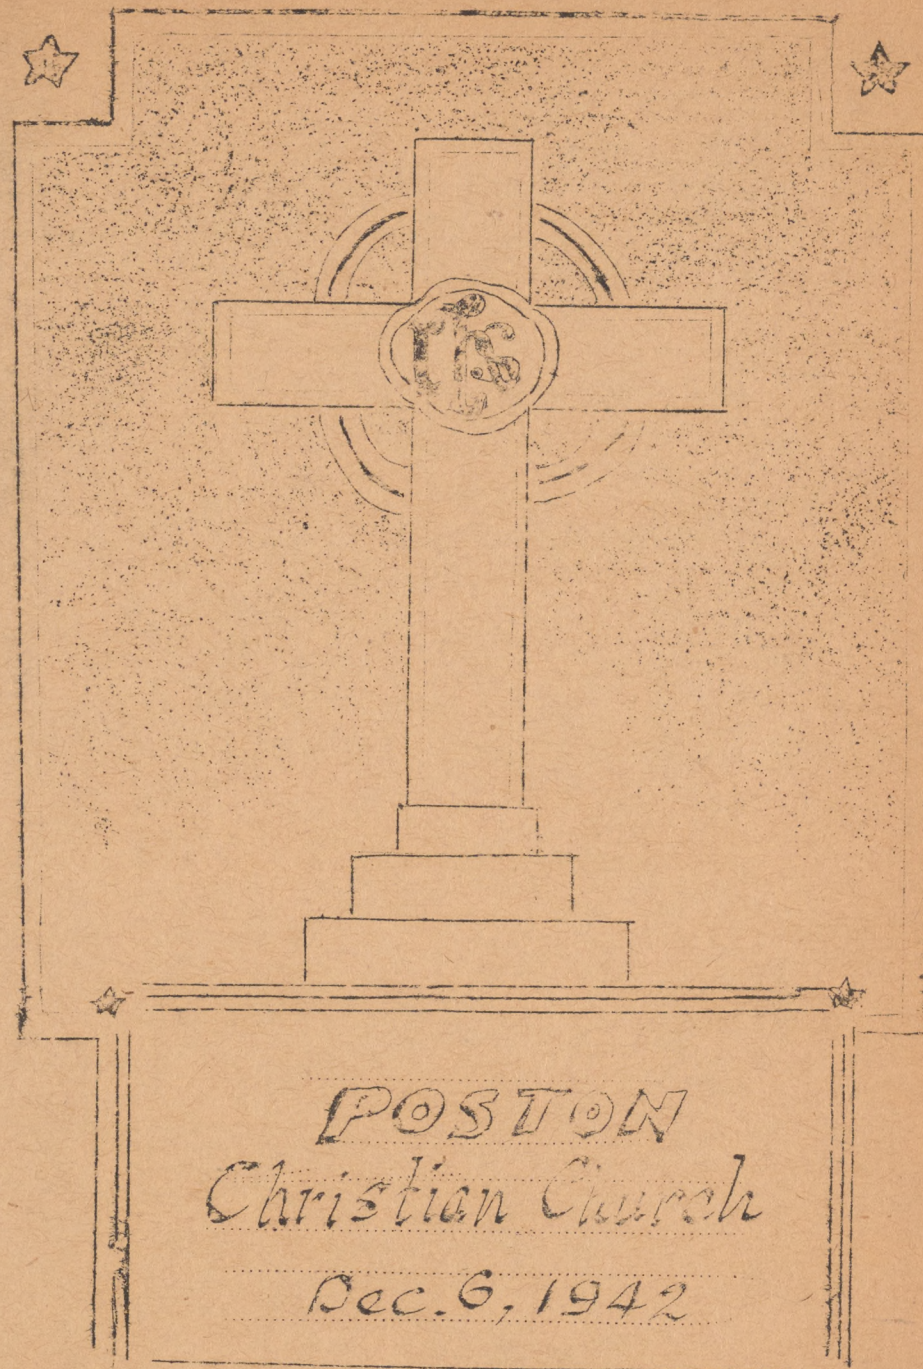

This old world can never be evangelized by Christians who compromise. The cross of Christ was not entwined with flowers. Those who carry that cross will feel its sharp angles and corners. Hooks baited with a soft gospel adapted to the natural senses and tastes will never catch that type of souls of which martyrs are made. Christ is not offering pillows of ease but calling for pillars of power....

To You, O Youth, Christ is throwing this challenge for a great Christian crusade for plainer living, higher thinking, and sacrificial service.

To You, O Youth, Your Church looks for that day when you shall place the supremacy of human values above all other values of life and make Christ the dominating motive although that may involve you in social ostracism, financial hardship, personal sacrifice, and suffering.

"If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

ANOTHER WAY

It was said that the wise men after visiting the Babe in the manger "went back another way."

No one can really see Christ go back the same way. Life does become different from that hour.

As we have come to the manger again at this Christmas time, let us go back another way. Let us leave our hates there and go back the way of persistent good will, let us leave our racial prejudices there and go back the way of a human brotherhood that will transcend all distinctions of color and class; let us leave all half-way responses, all compromise, and go back to be abandoned to Him and to His Kingdom.

PEACE ON EARTH

Shepherds there were who in the fields by night
Kept watch, not wisting that a chorus bright
Of angels would to them the news convey--
The dawning of the world's most potent day.
Countless the nights of darkness and of fear
The world has watched through, but the message clear
Of prophets, martyrs, saints, and poets brought
The healing word for which it blindly sought.
Visions from God--through men must come
the word,
Till the whole earth to action deeply stirred
From war and dread and hatred wins release,
And hails once more as King the Prince of Peace.

TREASURE FOR THE HEART TO SHARE

By Hazel M. Kerr

Impatiently we wait to see
The presents on our Christmas tree.

But let us also search to find
The richer gifts of soul and mind.

Such gifts cannot be bought or sold,
Or taken in the hands to hold,

But, wrought of loving thought and prayer,
Are treasures for the heart to share.

Life is a great, worthy, holy, and divine thing. Life is to be used as a sacred trust. Life is to be a cup out of which thirsty men and women are to be given drink. Our lives are bread, by which hungry men and women are to be fed. We are in the world, like our Master, not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give our lives as ransoms for many.

- Robert E. Speer
Princeton University

More things are wrought by prayer
Than this world dreams of. Wherefore, let thy voice
Rise like a fountain for me night and day.
For what are men better than sheep or goats
That nourish a blind life within the brain,
If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer
Both for themselves and those who call them friend?
For so the whole round earth is every way
Bound by gold chains about the feet of God.

- Alfred Lord Tennyson.

I believe in the wonder of the out-of-doors,
in the inspiration of the stars;
I believe in the strength of the hills, in the silence of the night, and in the music of the birds and trees;
I believe that my body was made for action, that my mind was made for thinking, and that my heart was made for loving.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Baptismal service will be postponed until next Sunday, January 3, 1943.

Sunday school teacher's staff and the church council please meet after the service.

HOW TO MAKE WORSHIP MEANINGFUL

Worship includes a three-fold experience.

1. THE UPWARD LOOK to God for His love, majesty, wisdom and power. Worship is a conscious fellowship with God.
2. THE INWARD LOOK at our own sin and shortcoming, resulting in a desire for forgiveness and restrengthening.
3. THE OUTWARD LOOK at the needs of other people for whose service we consecrate ourselves anew.

Into the sunset

Let me die, working.
Still tackling plans unfinished, tasks undone!
Clean to its end, swift may my race be run.
No laggard steps, no faltering, no shirking;
Let me die, working!

Let me die, thinking.
Let me fare forth still with an open mind,
Fresh secrets to unfold, new truths to find,
My soul undimmed, alert, no question blinking;
Let me die, thinking!

Let me die, laughing.
No sighing o'er past sins; they are forgiven.
Spilled on this earth are all the joys of heaven;
Let me die, laughing!

BIBLE STUDY HOUR

The first and most important on our list of suggestions for Christian living would be regular Bible reading, meditation, and prayer. Every Thursday evening this Bible Study hour 7:30 P.M. "at church" is set aside for you to make your commitment to Christ more effective.

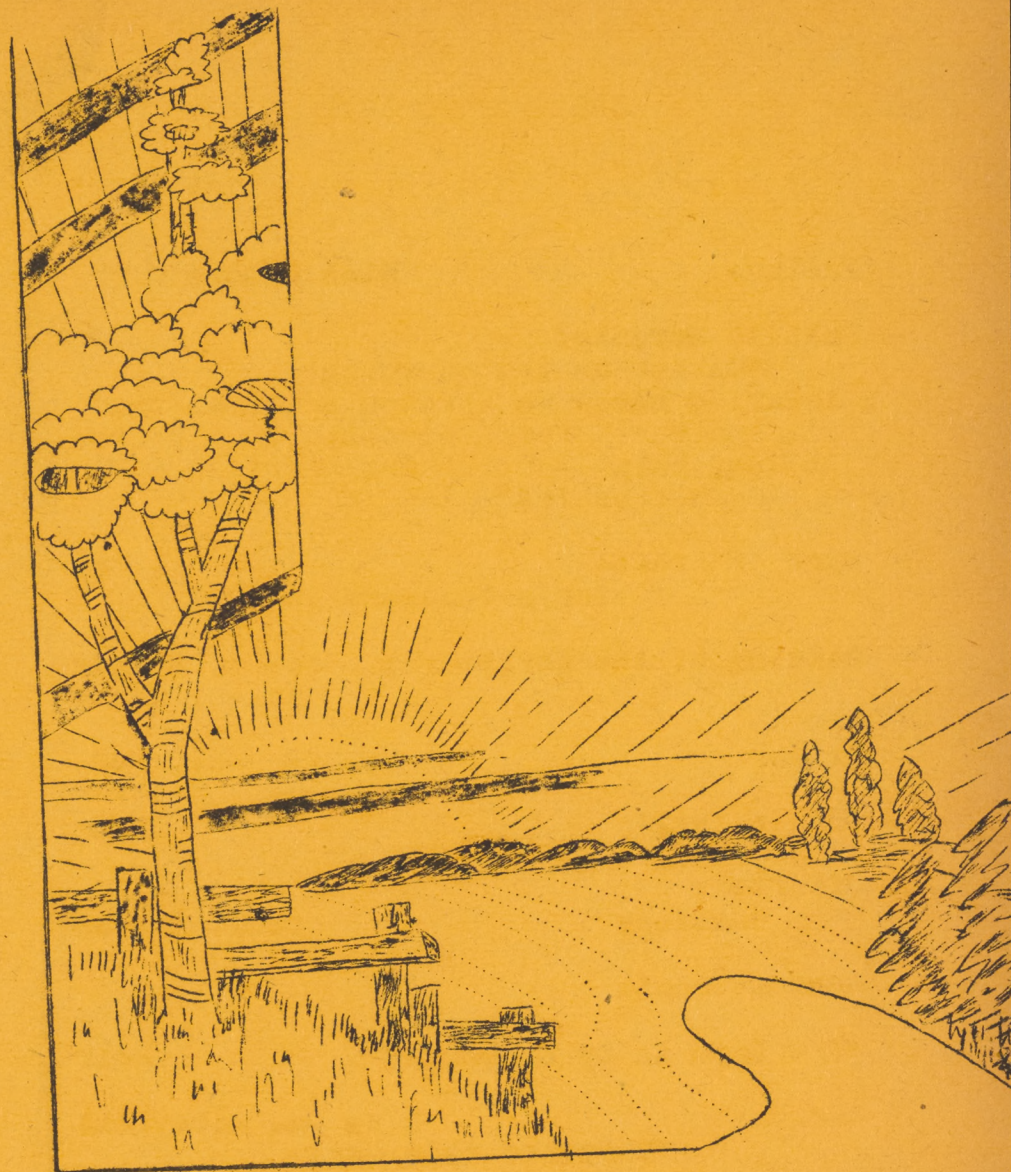

The topic for this Thursday is "Jesus, the Bread of Life" John ch. 6.
"THE ENTRANCE OF THY WORDS GIVETH LIGHT; IT GIVETH UNDERSTANDING UNTO THE SIMPLE." Psalms

LIVE IN THE PRESENT

Forget the past and live the present hour;
Now is the time to work, the time to fill
The soul with noblest thoughts, the time to will Heroic deeds, to use whatever dower
Heaven has bestowed, to test our utmost power.

Now is the time to love, and better still,
To serve our loved ones, over passing ill
To rise triumphant; thus the perfect flower
Of life shall come to fruitage; wealth amass
For grandest giving ere the time be gone.

Be glad today, tomorrow may bring tears;
Be brave today, the darkest night will pass,
And golden rays will usher in the dawn;
Who conquers now shall rule the coming years.

WHEN I SURVEY THE WONDROUS CROSS

When I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my God:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

CHANGELESS

God will not change! The restless years may bring Sunlight and shade--the glories of the Spring,
The silent gloom of sunless Winter hours;
Joy mixed with grief--sharp thorns with fragrant flowers.

Earth's lights may shine a while and then grow dim.
But God is true! There is no change in Him.

Rest in the Lord today and all thy days
Let His unerring hand direct thy ways
Through the uncertainty, and hope and fear,
That meet thee on the threshold of the year;
And fine while all life's changing scenes pass by
Thy refuge in the love that can not die.

SPEAK OUT FOR JESUS!

"You talk about your business,
Your bonds and stocks and gold;
And in all worldly matters
You are so brave and bold;
But why are you so silent
About salvation's plan?
Why don't you live for Jesus,
And speak out like a man?"

"You talk about the weather,
And the crops of corn and wheat;
You speak of friends and neighbors
That pass along the street;
You call yourself a Christian,
And like the Gospel plan---
Then why not live for Jesus,
And speak out like a man?"

"Are you ashamed of Jesus
And the story of the Cross,
That you lower His pure banner
And let it suffer loss?
Have you forgot His suffering,
How His life-blood for you ran?
If not, then witness for Him,
And speak out like a man.

"I'd like to tell the story sweet
Of Jesus. Wouldn't you?
To help some other folks to meet
Their Savior. Wouldn't you?
I'd like to travel all the way
To where I'd hear my Jesus say:
'You've helped my work along today,'
I'd like that. Wouldn't you?"

IN THE CROSS OF CHRIST I GLORY

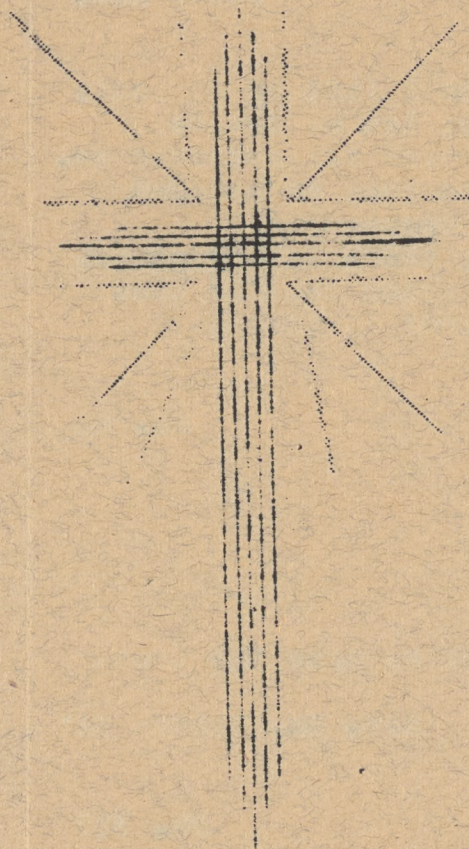

In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more luster to the day.

Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

ON THE PALMS OF JESUS' HANDS

Are you lonely? He'll be with you
Till the night of darkness ends.
And misunderstood? Remember,
He's the one who comperhends.
All perplexed as to life's Pathway
Just ask; He will be your guide.
Needing comfort? Hasten to Him,
For His arms are open wide.
What an understanding Saviour,
What a comprehending God:
'Tis because He passed before us,
All life's thorny paths He trod;
Yes, He knows all your temptations,
All your trials He understands,
Do you know your name is graven
On the palms of Jesus' hands?

Though this world's best joys have faded,
How much more have you been given?
Through your faith a rich inheritance---
A wondrous home in Heaven;
Where they shine, the ivory palaces,
And where gleam the towers of gold,
And through eternal ages,
Joys unspeakable unfold.
So then bear your trials bravely,
You will never suffer loss
If you follow in the footsteps
Of the One who bore the cross;
If you love His every precept,
And obey all His commands;
For your name is now engraven
On the palms of Jesus' hands.

FOR ME

Under an Eastern sky,
Amid a rabble cry,
A man went forth to die,
For me!

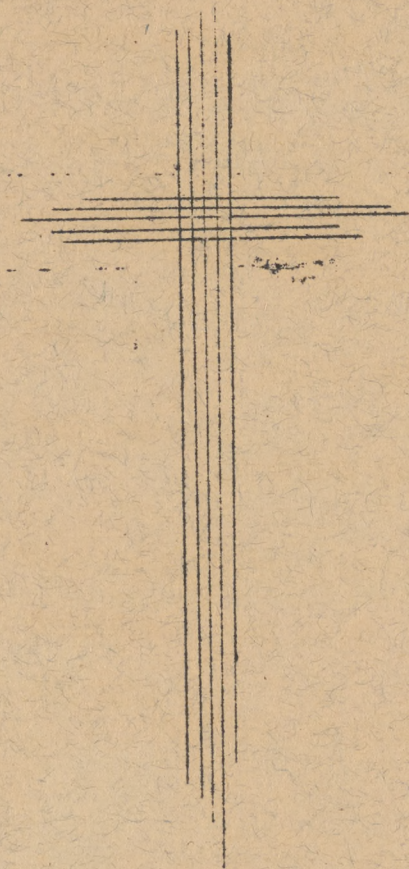

Thorn-crowned his blessed head,
Blood-stained his every tread,
Cross-laden on he sped,
For me!

Pierced glow his hands and feet,
Three hours o'er him did beat
Fierce rays of noon-tide heat,
For me!

Thus wert thou made all mine,
Lord make me wholly thine,
Give grace and strength divine,
To me!

In thought and word and deed,
Thy will to do; oh! lead my feet
E'en though they bleed,
To thee!

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held at the Block 213 Park Sunday morning April 25th, at 6:30 A.M. Everybody invited!

WHAT DOES EASTER MEAN TO YOU?

Does it mean the end of winter's reign,
Bright skies and welcome warmth again?
Singing of birds, budding of trees,
And sweet spring odors on the breeze.
From daffodil and crocus bed
And balsam branches overhead?
Sad is the world, and cold and gray,
If this is all of Easter Day.

But if this blessed season brings
A firmer faith in holy things;
Assurance of a living Lord;
A strengthening of the tender chord
Of love that binds us to the life to come.
Where loved ones wait us in the heavenly home;
No pain nor loss can e'er efface the bliss,
Dear friend, of Easter when it means all this.

HE LIVES!

I serve a risen Saviour, He's in the world today;

I know that He is living;
Whatever men may say:

I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of
cheer,

And just the time I need Him.
He's always near.

Cho. He lives! He lives!
Christ Jesus lives today
He walks with me and talks with me
Along life's radiant way.
He lives! He lives!
Salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives?
He lives within my heart.

In all the world around me I see His loving
care,

And tho' my hear grows weary,
I never will despair;

I know that He is leading, thro all the stormy
blast,

The day of His appearing will come at last.

Rejoice, rejoice, O Christian,
Lift up your voice and sing
Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him,
The Help of all who find,
None other is so loving, so good and kind.

LIVING FOR JESUS

Living for Jesus a life that is true,
Striving to please Him in all that I do,
Yielding allegiance, gladhearted and free,
This is the pathway of blessing for me.

Cho. O Jesus, Lord and Saviour,
I give myself to Thee;
For Thou, in Thy atonement,
Didst give Thyself for me;
I own no other Master,
My heart shall be Thy throne,
My life I give, henceforth to live,
O Christ, for Thee alone.

Living for Jesus who died in my Place,
Bearing on Calv'ry my sin and disgrace,
Such love constrains me to answer His call,
Follow His leading and give Him my all.

Living for Jesus wherever I am,
Doing each duty in His holy name,
Willing to suffer affliction or loss,
Deeming each trial a part of my cross.

Living for Jesus thro' earth's little while,
My dearest treasure, the light of His smile,
Seeking the lost ones He died to redeem,
Bringing the weary to find rest in Him.

A PRAYER FOR MOTHER

Amid earth's rush, and clash, and strife,
Its daily drive and stress,
Are those who guard the founts of life.
Dear God, each mother bless.

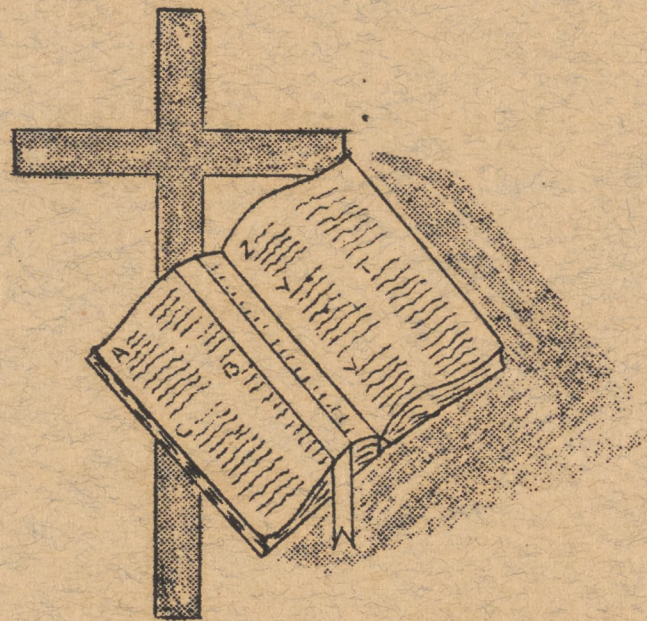

Give her thy patience, trusting now
Each day, assuredly,
That planted seed, she knows not how,
A harvest rich shall be.

Give her thy rich o'erflowing love
Which calls all hearts to Thee;
Makes credible a God Above
Since mother love we see.

So 'mid earth's rush, and clash, and strife,
Its daily drive and stress,
Keep those who guard the founts of life,
Dear God, each mother bless.

IN THY PRESENCE

Lord, what a change within us one short hour
Spent in Thy presence will prevail to make!
What heavy burdens from our bosoms take,
What parched grounds refresh as with a shower!
We kneel, and all around us seems to lower;
We rise, and all, the distant and the near,
Stands forth in sunny outline brave and clear;
We kneel, how weak; we rise, how full of power!
Why, therefore, should we do ourselves this wrong,
Or others, that we are not always strong,
That we are ever overborne with care,
That we should ever weak or heartless be,
Anxious or troubled, when with us is prayer,
And joy and strength and courage are with Thee!

Beginning tonight a Post-Easter Conference is being held in Camp III for five days, May 16-20th. The speakers will be Rev. Jitsuo Morikawa of Camp I and Rev. Yutaka Nakagawa of Granada, Colorado. All those planning to attend tonite's service, please meet at the Church by 7:00 P.M. The fellowship meeting is cancelled for tonite.

Thursday nite!

Come join us in the study of the Book of John this Thursday evening at the #222 Rec. Hall, 8:00 P.M.

Next Sunday!

We are expecting to have with us, as our guest speaker for next Sunday, Rev. Stewart C. Potter of Monterey, California.

Council members!

Immediately following the Worship Service, there will be a Church Council meeting.

"RELIGION IS NOT WHAT WE THINK
BUT HOW WE LIVE."

MUST WE LEARN THE HARD WAY?

"God is preparing His people for a New Order--a people burning with a pure passion of the love of Jesus. His New Order will usher in the Kingdom.

We have been a pleasure-loving people, dishonouring God's day, picnicking and bathing.

Now the sea-shores are barred--no picnicking, no bathing.

We have preferred motor travel to Church going, now there is a shortage of motor fuel and tires.

We have ignored the ringing of Church bells calling us to worship.

Now the bells cannot ring except to warn of invasion.

We have left the churches half empty, when they should have been filled with worshippers.

Now they are in ruins.

We would not listen to the Way of Peace, Now we are forced to listen to the Way of War,

The money we would not give to the Lord's work, now is taken from us in taxes and higher prices.

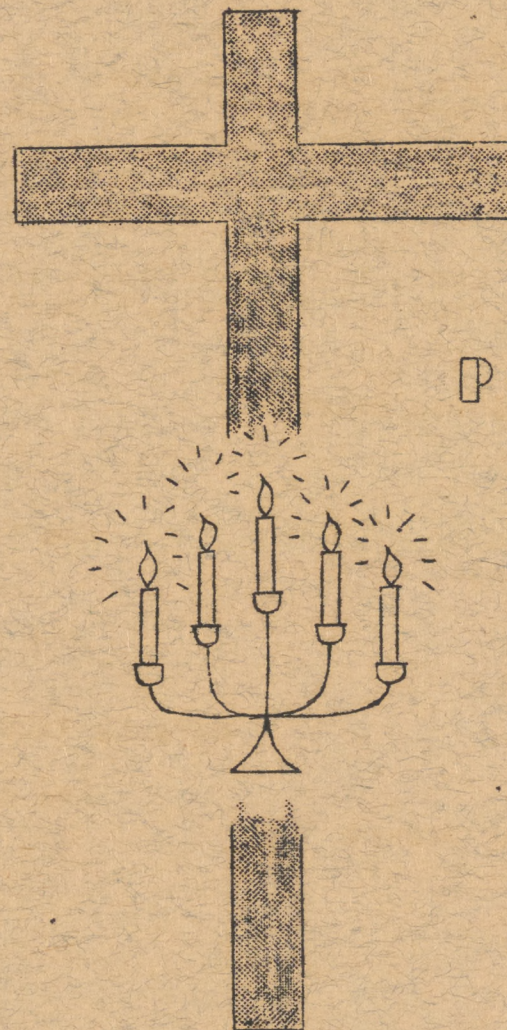

The food for which we forgot to thank God, now is unobtainable.

The services we refused to Give God, now is conscripted for the country.

Lives which refused to live under God's control now are under the Nation's control.

Nights we would not spend "Watching Unto Prayer" now we spend in anxious air raid precaution.

The evils of modernism we would not fight now, see what Germany, the seat of this teaching has produced."

THE SECRET

I met God in the morning
When the day was at its best,
And His Presence came like sunrise,
Like a glory in my breast.

All day long the Presence lingered,
All day long He stayed with me,
And we sailed in perfect calmness
Over a very troubled sea.

Other ships were blown and battered,
Other ships were sore distressed,
But the winds that seemed to drive them
Brought to us a peace and rest.

Then I thought of other mornings
With a keen remorse of mind,
When I too had loosed the moorings
With the Presence left behind.

So I think I know the secret,
Learned from many a troubled way:
You must seek Him in the morning
If you want Him through the day.

CHRIST WANTS THE BEST

Christ wants the best. He in the far-off ages

Once claimed the firstling of the flock,
the finest of the wheat.

And still he asks his own with gentlest
pleading

To lay their highest hopes and brightest talents at his feet,

He'll not forget the feeblest service,
humblest love;

He only asks that of our store we give to Him The best we have.

Christ gives the best. He takes the hearts
we offer,

And fills them with his glorious beauty,
joy and peace,

And in his service, as we're growing stronger,
The calls to grand achievements still increase.

The richest gifts for us on earth, or in the heaven above,

Are hid in Christ. In Jesus we receive
The best we have.

And is our best too much? O friends, let us remember

How once our Lord poured out his soul
for us.

And in the prime of his mysterious manhood
Gave up his precious life upon the cross

The Lord of lords, by whom the worlds were made,

Through bitter grief and tears gave
The Best He Had.

A HYMN OF PEACE

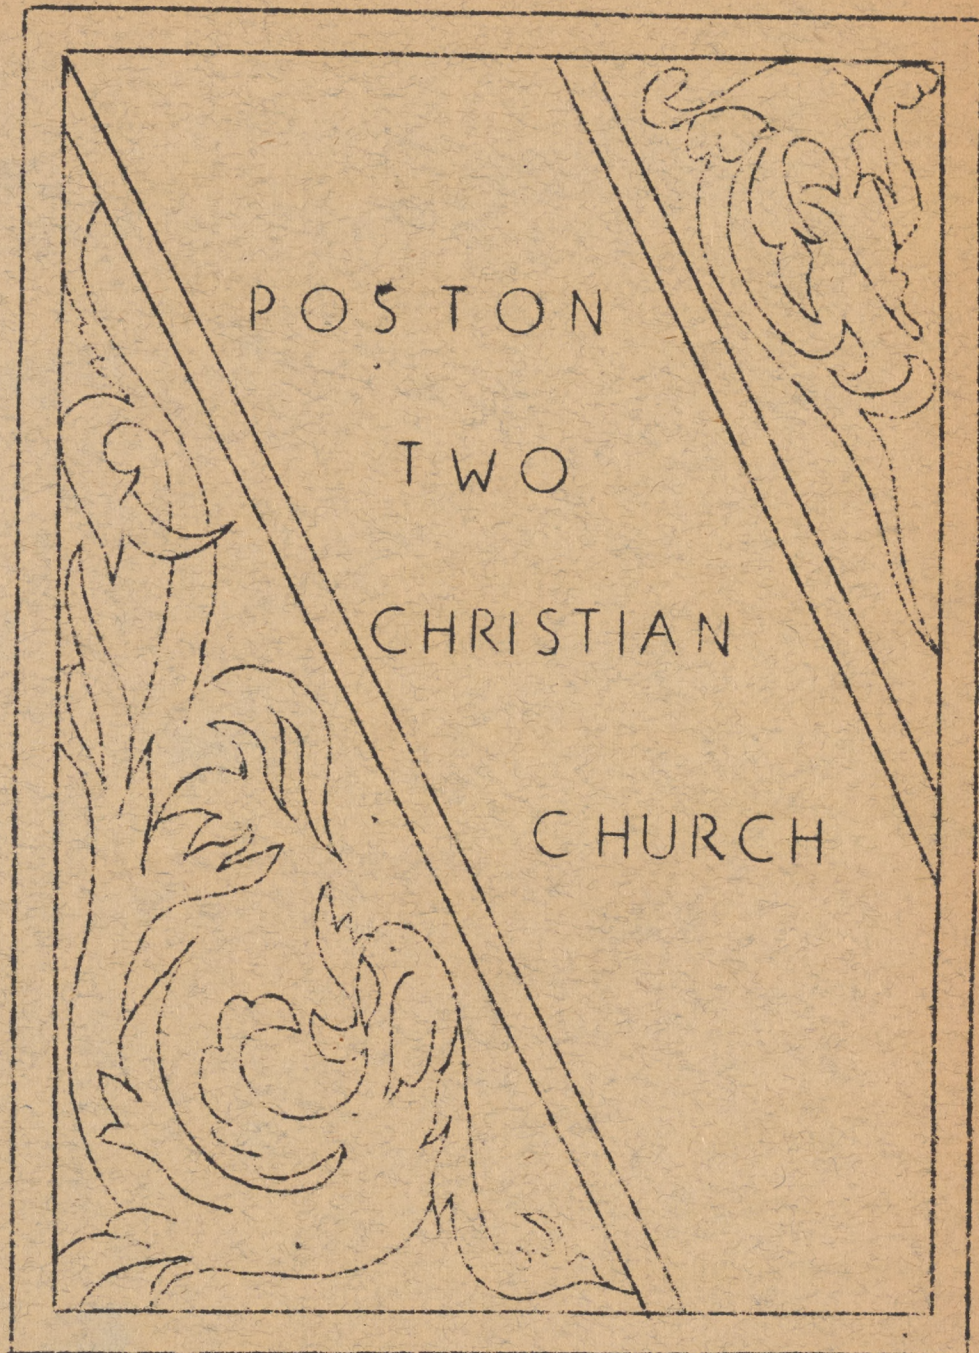

The son of God goes forth for Peace,
Our Father's love to show;
From war and woe He brings release,
O, who with him will go?
He strikes the fetters from the slave,
Man's mind and heart makes free;
And sends his messengers to save
O'er every land and sea!

The son of God goes forth for peace,
Nor lands nor power to gain;
He seeks to serve, to love, to life;
Who follows in His train?
A glorious band, in every age,
In spite of scorn and pain,
True sons of God, his peace have made;
Who follows in their train?

Now let the world to peace be won,
And every hatred slain:
Let force and greed be overcome
And love supreme remain!
Let justice rule in all the earth,
And mercy while we live,
Lest we--forgiven much--forget
Our brother to forgive!

We send our love to every land---
True neighbors would we be;
And pray God's peace to reign in them,
Where'er their homeland be!
O God, to us may grace be given,
Who bear the dear Christ's name,
To live at peace with every man,
And thus our Christ acclaim!

--Ernest Bourner Allen

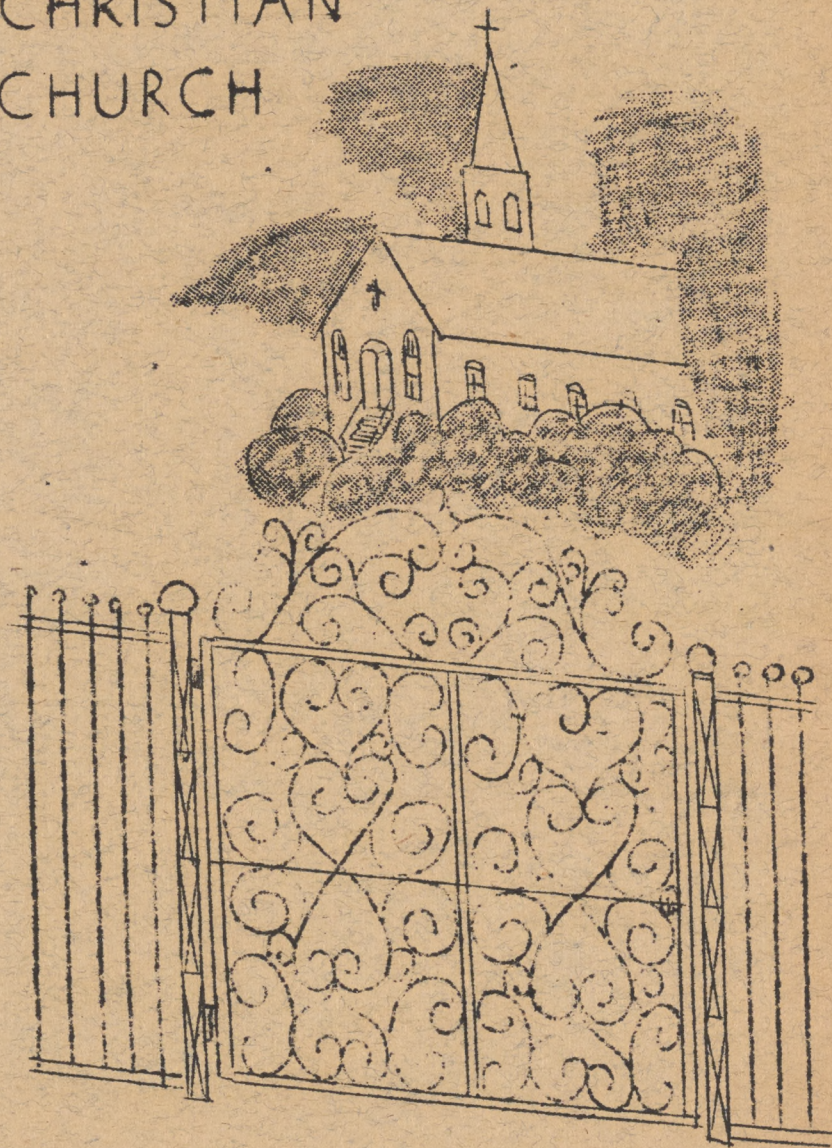

WORRY IS ATHEISM

When I say to you that you can live without fear and worry, I mean that. This is not an academic statement, but a fact. I think I shall pause in my theology and give a testimony. By all outer signs the week during which I was writing these pages should have been a week of worry and defeat, for everything had gone wrong! All my intensive efforts for months at Washington to find a basis for peace between Japan and America had come to naught. Agreement had seemed so near and so possible--and then the crash. A long war stared us in the face. I was cut off from my work in India. My wife and family were there--cut off for the duration of the war--and worse--the war was slowly moving in upon them. By the time this is printed they may be in the conflict--or they may not. At any rate, that week should have brought me anxiety and fear. But it did not. There hadn't been a moment's worry. There had been peace. When a woman said to me one evening, "You have had a quiet day; you've had time to worry," I felt inwardly startled. "Time to worry"--as if a Christian ever has "time to worry"! The Christian has expunged worry from his vocabulary.

Thank you Mr. Crawford for your gift to the church. May God continue to bless you and your services for the Japanese.

NAMES, NAMES, NAMES!

We would like to have the names and addresses of those who have left camp. Please submit them to the church office.

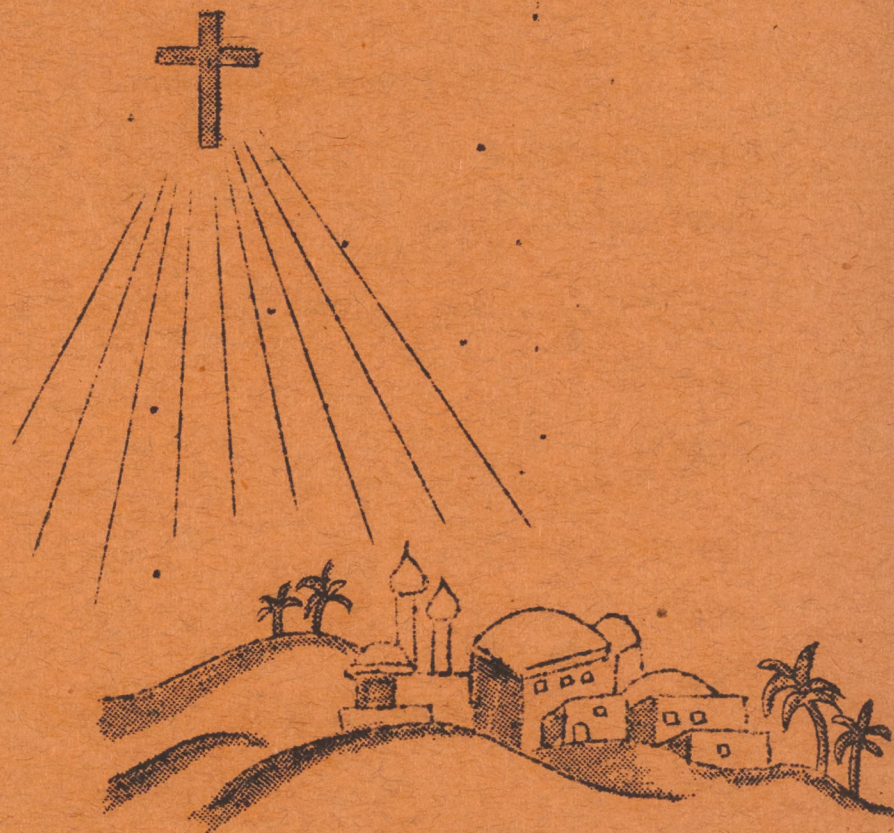

FAITH IN HIS FAITH

There is a passage which touches your need. "For the Eternal.....will not let you go." (Deuteronomy 4:31, Moffat.) Faith is not merely your holding on to God---it is God holding on to you. He will not let you go! As Walt Whitman puts it, "Not until the sun refuses to shine, do I refuse you." Then keep saying to your soul, "Your strength is quiet faith." (Isaiah 30:15, Moffatt.) Then repeat to your soul these words: "To say what ought to be cannot be is a brief and a complete statement of atheism." It is. Say to yourself, "What ought to be can be, and I will make it so." And you will. You will go beyond yourself.

One saint keeps repeating, "God is. God is here with me." That creates confidence and faith.

HOW TO ENJOY LIFE:

Eat less, Chew more
Ride less, Walk more
Loaf less, Work more
Talk less, Think more
Frown less, Smile more
Scold less, Praise more
Grumble less, Pray more

NEVER ALONE

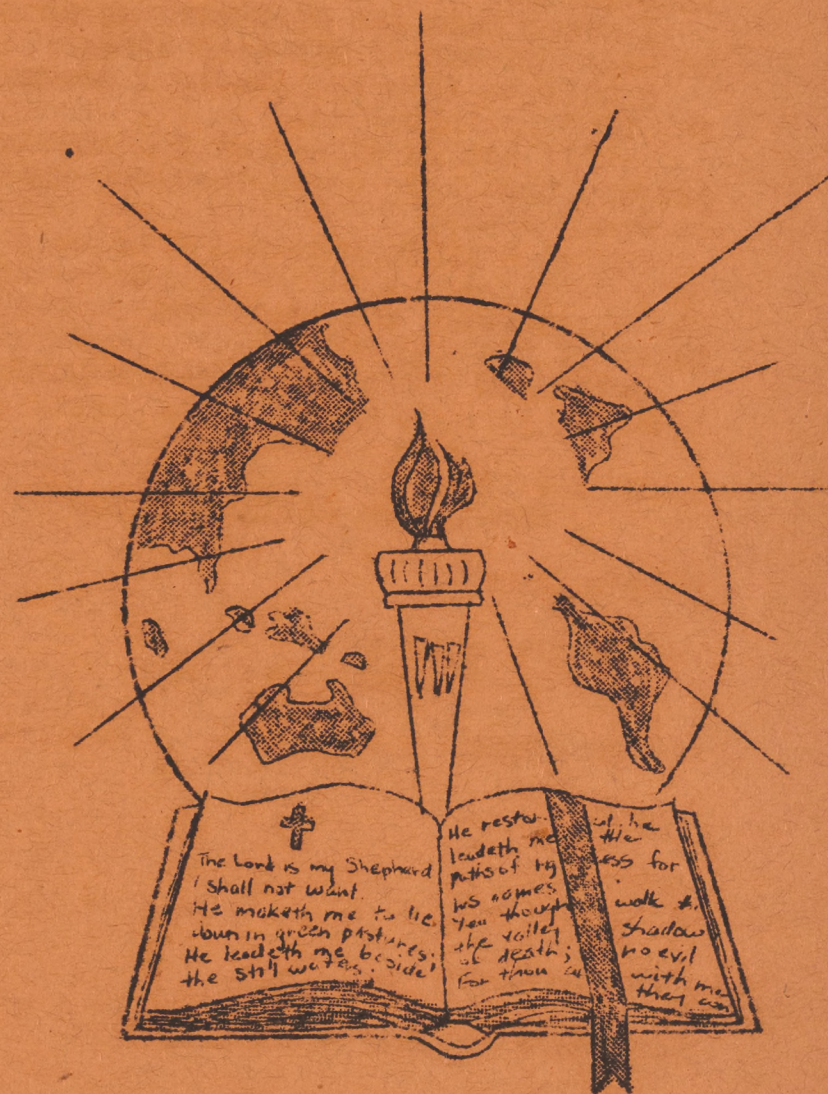

Say to yourself, "I live and move and have my being, in all inner thoughts and outer expression, in the wealth of God every moment." And say this when you least feel the truth of it and keep saying it.

And to the above statement add these words as you go forth to meet life: "With the peace of God in my heart and with good will toward my fellow men I am ready for the work of the day." And you will be ready for the work of the day!

Then when you lie down to sleep say to yourself again: "Today I have lived and moved and have had my being in God, and while sleep I still live and have my being in Him. He will guide and purify my dreams and in the morning I shall be further along." "Those who have the gales of the Spirit are carried forward even in sleep," says Brother Lawrence.

AWARENESS

God---let me be aware.
Let me not stumble blindly down the ways,
Just getting somehow safely through the days,
Not even groping for another hand,
Not even wondering why it all was planned,
Eyes to the ground unseeking for the light,
Soul never aching for a wild-winged flight,
Please, keep me eager just to do my share.
God---let me be aware.

God---let me be aware.
Stab my soul fiercely with others' pain,
Let me walk seeing horror and stain.
Let my hands, groping, find other hands.
Give me the heart that divines, understands.
Give me the courage, wounded, to fight.
Flood me with knowledge, drench me in light.
Please, keep me eager just to do my share.
God---let me be aware.

I am God's steward:
My life is a trust from Him,
To be lived nobly, service-filled, and

To be baptized---Miss Mary Naganuma

My friends, let us try to follow the Saviour's steps: let us remember all day long what it is to be men; that it is to have everyone whom we meet for our brother in the sight of God, that it is this, never to meet anyone, however bad he may be, for whom we cannot say: "Christ died for that man, and Christ cares for him still. He is precious in God's eyes, and he shall be precious in mine also."

---Charles Kingsley

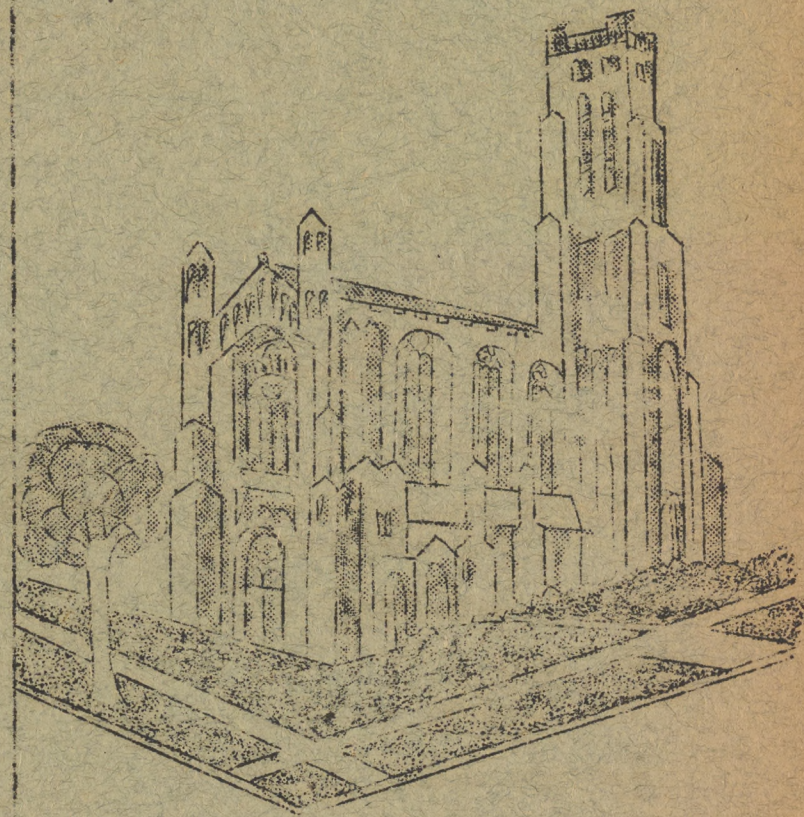

We should so live and labor in our time that what came to us as seed may go to the next generation as blossom, and that what came to us as blossom may go to them as fruit. This is what we mean by progress.

---Henry Ward Beecher

The relations of Christians to each other are like the several flowers in a garden that have upon each the dew of heaven, which, being shaken by the wind, they let fall the dew of each other's roots, whereby they are jointly nourished, and become nourishers of one another.

"And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of Life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst."

John 6:35

"And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you....." Matt.4:19 (Read Ps.24)

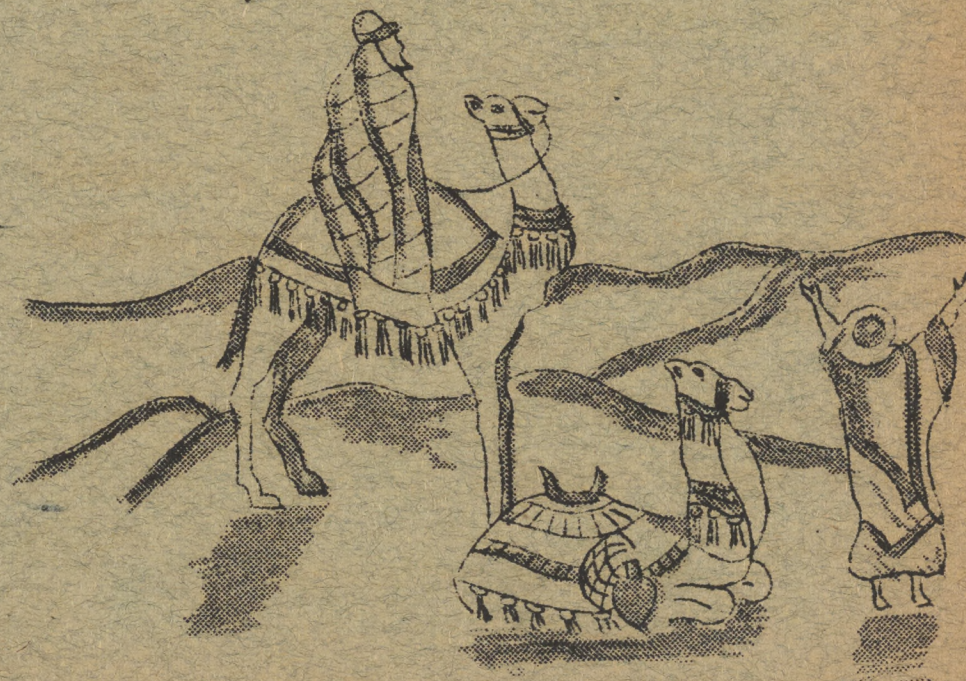

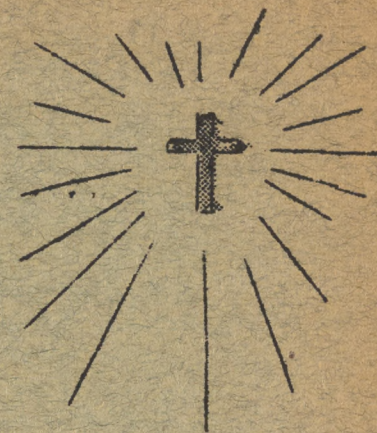

Follow me, and I will make you....." is both a promise and a command of Jesus. The Master was talking to Peter and Andrew. What He wanted them to understand was that He would make their lives what they ought to be and what God intended them to be.

The fact that Andrew and Peter had no rating in the social register of Galilee made no difference to Jesus. They were men and they needed God---that was the thing that mattered then and is still the thing of supreme importance today. Every human soul needs God.

Following Jesus is never outmoded. There is hope for the world as long as a few people follow Him who is "the way, the truth, and the life." Take Jesus seriously and you will become a person of power, for your life will be anchored to the eternal purposes of God.

WHAT JESUS MEANS TO ME

To me Jesus means a great deal. He died for me on the Cross of Calvary. He died to cleanse my sins. Jesus helps me when I'm in trouble. He is always with me wherever I am. When I am weak He gives me strength. I was saved by the blood of Jesus Christ my Savior. Jesus Christ is the Light of the world. I'm glad I have Jesus in my heart. Without Him I wouldn't be happy. Jesus led me to the right path and helped me from going to the wrong direction. I'm very thankful Jesus Christ came into my heart. If I didn't accept Jesus Christ into my heart I always think I would be walking in the path of darkness.

MY IMPRESSION OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL

Friendship with Christ is the most enjoyable thing that we Christians may have. I know that many of us did not know much about our personal Savior Jesus Christ, but due to the assistance of the teachers of this vacation school, we became able to speak to Him better and we have learned more about Jesus and His teachings. We are all very grateful for this opportunity of meeting new friends, to understand each other, and to call each other brothers and sisters in Christ. Yes, the knowledge of Christ is a very wonderful thing to have within us day by day so that we may extend and share our knowledge with our next door neighbors.

GOD'S STRANGE ANSWERS

He was a Christian and he prayed.

He asked for strength that he might do greater things; but he was given infirmity that he might do better things.

He asked for riches that he might be happy; he was given poverty that he might be wise.

He asked for power that he might have the praise of men; he was given weakness that he might feel the need of God.

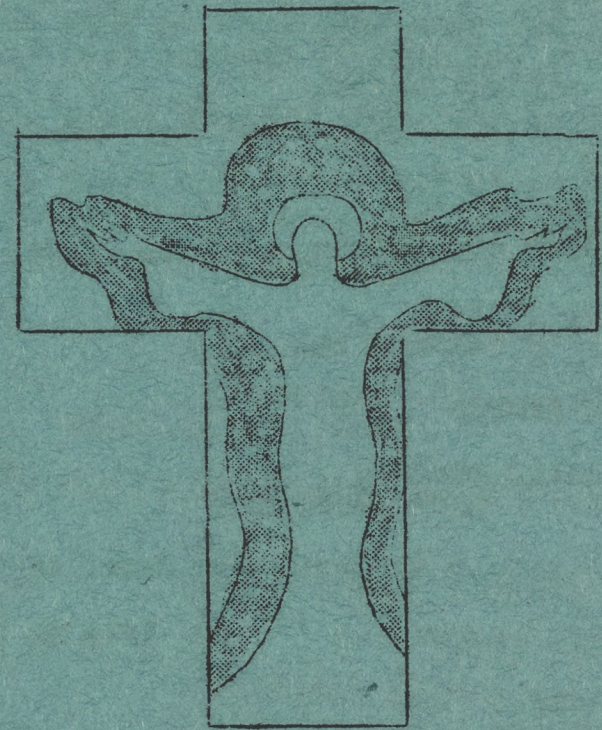

He asked for all things that he might enjoy life; he was given life that he might enjoy all things.

He had received nothing that he asked for; all that he hoped for.

His prayer is answered, he is most blessed.

"GOD OPENED HER EYES AND SHE SAW-----"
Genesis 21:19

God-created world can not be a contradictory world. Food is provided for appetite, Light for eyes, Love for heart, and Knowledge for mind.

Why do we not see the world of beauty and joy instead of the world of contradiction and disappointment? Because we haven't had our eyes opened. There are beauty and truth and harmony in this world, but we don't see them.

Let us have our intellectual eyes opened so that they may see the beauties and wonders of the earth, sea, and heaven. We need to get our spiritual eyes opened more than our intellectual eyes in order that we may be able to see the presence of God with us, the presence of the personal God; God, who loves us as a father loves his children, and God of Jesus Christ, who is concerned with our welfare more than we are ourselves and provides all of our needs in Jesus Christ. By having our eyes closed, we find nothing. By having our eyes opened, we find everything we need provided by our Heavenly Father. "God opened her eyes and she saw-----"

"I HAVE CALLED YOU FRIENDS"

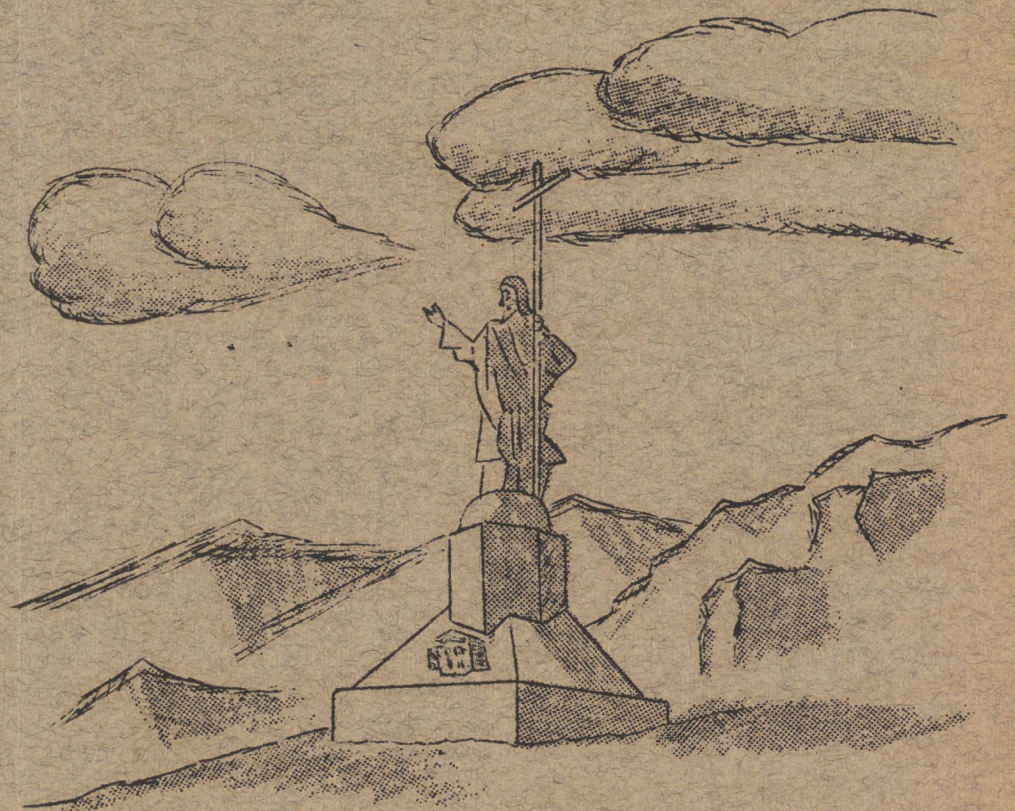

John 15:15

There are many young people who hesitate to make public confession of their faith and take positive stand as Christians because they feel they are not good enough to take that stand. They feel that they will not be able to meet the demands of God and the expectations of the people around them as Christians. Those who feel that way are usually honest, conscientious people; but they fail to see the fact that the Christian life is a two sided "contract" with God,----better say "comradeship" with God. God does not just demand us to do things to please Him, but God is willing to do His part to keep this comradeship a most happy and gratifying one. Many of us think we are "reservoirs" to supply our own needs out of our limited supplies, but the truth is, we are "channels" through which God's power runs and works to accomplish His will when we become His own.

"A piece of wire disconnected is one thing, but a piece of wire attached to a dynamo and an engine is quite another thing. Alone you are one thing; attached to God's purposes, you are quite another thing." (Stanley Jones) Don't think God is a merciless master who knows only to exact from his servant; God is a merciful Friend who wants to help us, to go with us, and support us in all our needs if we are only willing to cooperate with Him and let Him work through us. Christian life is to have God live in us and work through us.

DAYLIGHT AND DARKNESS

I said to God in the morning:
"Thy yoke is easy, Lord,
And light indeed is Thy burden,
And crystal-clear is Thy word.
And I am ready for service
Whatever Thou wilt," I said,
As blithely I started forward,
The pathway bright ahead.

The night came down with its darkness,
And long indeed was the road,
And I was tired and weary,
And fainting beneath my load.
I lost the words of His promise,
And none of my work was done.
I cried aloud for the daylight,
For a smooth road, and the sun.

Then a voice came out of the shadows:
The voice of my unseen friend:
"Lo, I am with you always,
Even unto the end."
It took the night and its darkness,
And a long road, rough and dim,
And the patience of the Saviour
To bring me close to Him.

COME UNTO ME AND I'LL GIVE YOU
(What does it mean to be a Christian?)

Some people hesitate to become Christians because they think it is demanded of them to render hard services to God. The parable found in Matthew 22:1-14 indicates that it is the acceptance of the invitation to be given the high privilege of being a Christian and yet, many refuse this invitation. Jesus used four small words to express what it is to become a Christian.

1. "Come unto me and I will give you---" (Matt. 28:19). Would anyone refuse a kind offer from his superior when he is offered, "Come, and I will give you" what you need? This something you need so badly and yet you can not earn by yourself---the forgiveness of sin and adoption into the family of God as His children and all privileges given, following this adoption as His children.
2. "Follow me and I will make you---" (Matt. 4:19). You need not make yourself better or perfect before you become a Christian. Jesus says to "Follow me and I will make you" what you ought and want to be.
3. "Abide in me and I in you---" (John 15:4). Jesus not only can work FOR us, but He can be IN our hearts only if we allow Him to come into our lives. What a wonderful thing it is to have Jesus in our hearts!
4. "Go ye and I am with you alway---" (Matt. 28:19). He will go with us to enable us to do all things we need to do. Why don't we let Him go with us and let Him do what He can.

Romans 8:28----"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

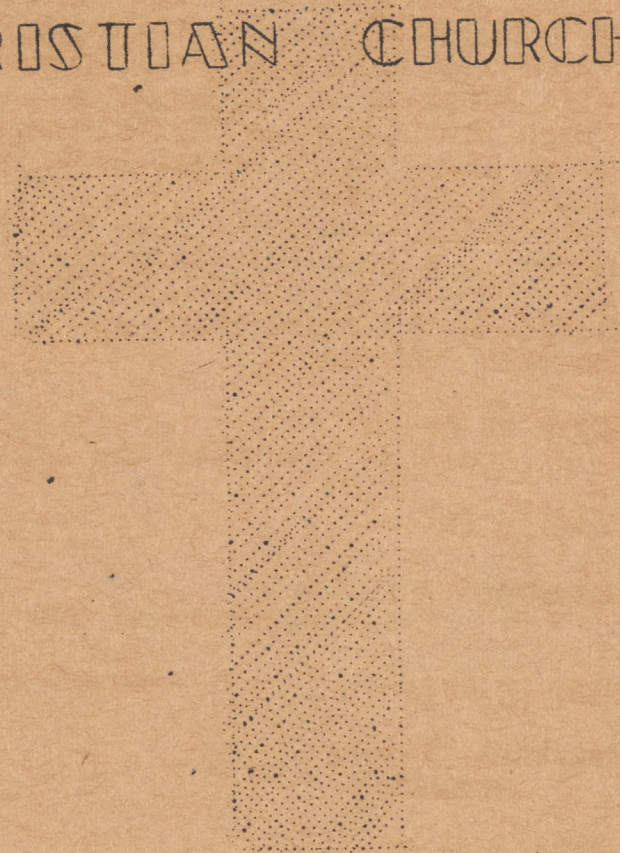

Nothing need beat us, provided we have the right attitude of mind. When the storm strikes the eagle, if its wings are set in a downward tilt, it will be dashed to pieces on the earth; but if its wings are tilted upward, it will rise, making the storm bear it up beyond its fury. The set of the wings decides defeat or victory.

Christianity gives a set of the soul, so that when trouble and frustration and disaster strike one, he goes up----his soul wings are set in that direction. The same disaster strikes another, and his soul attitudes are tilted earthward; so he writhes in anguish in the dust. Death strikes a home, and in it leaves bitterness and frustration; in another, calm and quiet victory and greater usefulness.

This morning, we welcome once again Rev. Gordon K. Chapman to our pulpit. He is the executive secretary of the Home Mission Council for Japanese. In this capacity, he has been working for the Japanese in the various Relocation Centers, assisting them in relocating on the outside. It is also through his efforts that a great many who were formerly in our congregation have been able to go out to school.

Bible study will be held on Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. Rev. Gordon K. Chapman will speak on the "Sermon on the Mount."

Following up the series of unprecedented meetings held during the preaching mission, the Junior Fellowship will hold a praise meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the 222 Recreation Hall.

THE WAY YOU VIEW IT

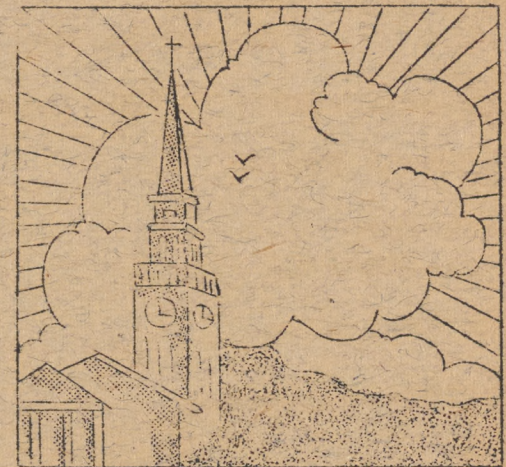

Scripture: Romans 8:28

Edison was very deaf and was glad of it. He says it saved him from hearing a lot of things he didn't wish to hear. He once said, "deafness gives me a needed isolation; reduces my sensitiveness so things do not disturb or distract; allows me to concentrate and focus on a thought until I run it down."

Wagner married a young girl Minna Planner, who, unfortunately, had no comprehension of the genius of her husband: that her two feet were always flatly planted on earth, and her head never reached the clouds: and she was a weary weight to him for twenty-five years they lived together. But Wagner endured it. His soul was a hunger for the bread of Life. She influenced his career by antithesis. Wagner's life was a revolt from the ossified commonplace, a struggle for right adjustment. Minna Planner had supplied him a stinging discontent, a continued unrest that formed the sounding-board on which Wagner's soul caught the music of immortality.

High school young people are again urged to avail themselves of the opportunity to study the Bible on Sunday mornings at the 211 Christian Church. Time: 8:45 a.m. You will learn the answers to many questions being asked by the young people regarding religion, God, Christ, and the Bible. Answers may also be found to personal problems which individuals are facing today.

GOSPEL OF CHRIST

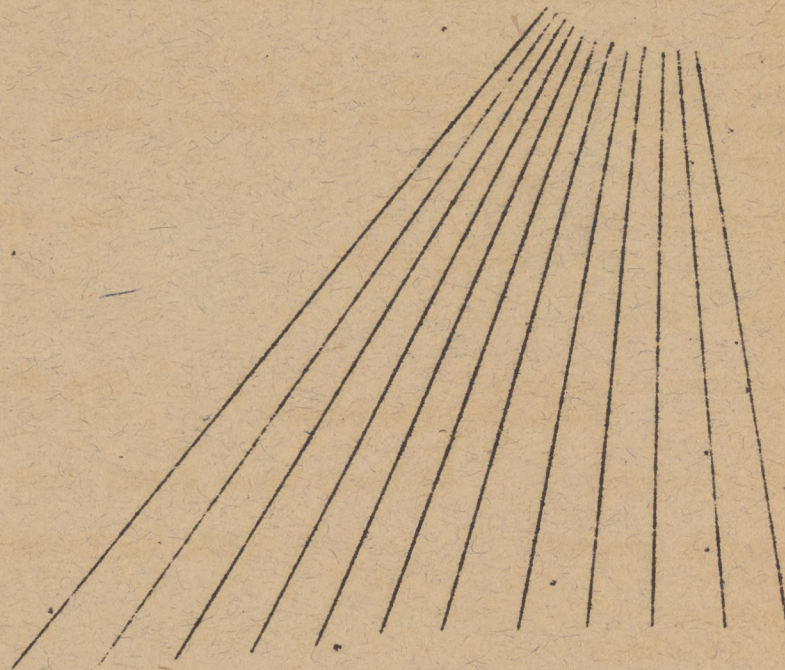

Scripture---Romans 1:16

Christianity is called "Gospel" in the Bible. Gospel means "Good Tiding." It was first used by the angel who announced the birth of Jesus to the shepherds in Bethlehem. (Luke 2:10) It was good tiding that Christ was born because, through Christ, something CAME to this world which men prior to Christ's birth did not have. Not only the birth of Christ is called good tiding but the four books telling about Christ and His life are called "Gospels." "Gospel according to Matthew" meaning Life of Christ recorded by Matthew; Gospel according to Mark, Luke, John. Christianity is the good news about Christ. Why is the news about Jesus called "Good News"? Because;

1. Jesus was the gift of God to every man. (To tell man that he is offered a gift is certainly good news.)
2. Jesus is a worthy and precious gift of God. (Offer of any gift is good news but it is more so when the gift is of priceless value.)
3. Through Jesus we receive manifold grace of God: God revealed Himself to us through Jesus. God offered the forgiveness of sin through Jesus. God gave Jesus as ever present living Savior, Friend and Guide. "Lo, I am with you always." To receive such a Person as Friend is a grand privilege. Isn't this good tiding? Accept Him and all privileges are yours.

POSTON TWO
CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Now, religion is the response of my personality to the personality of God. Religion means, then, that I would think God's thoughts after him, feel his feelings after him, with his purposes after him and become his being after him. But apart from Jesus I know little of God, so religion means to me to think Christ's thoughts, feel his feelings, will his purposes, and become his being.

Christianity uses ritual, but it is not ritual; it has beliefs, but it is not a belief; it has institutions, but it is not an institution. In its deepest meaning it is person giving itself to Person, life to Life.

We welcome to our pulpit this morning
Dr. Walter Squires, who is to be with us during the absence of our pastor Rev. K.
Takeda. We extend a cordial welcome to Church, 7:00 p.m. Thursday evening. Dr. W.

Squires will be in charge of the Bible study.

Choir practice will be held Friday evening at the 211 Church, 7:00 p.m. A good group turned out Friday evening but we

and join us in singing the Christmas carols.

Christmas cards and calendars are being sold at the church office.

When I am tired, the Bible is my bed;
Or in the dark, the Bible is my light;
When I am hungry, it is vital bread;
Or fearful, it is armor for the fight.
When I am sick, 'tis healing medicine;
Or lonely, thronging friends I find therein.

I BELIEVE

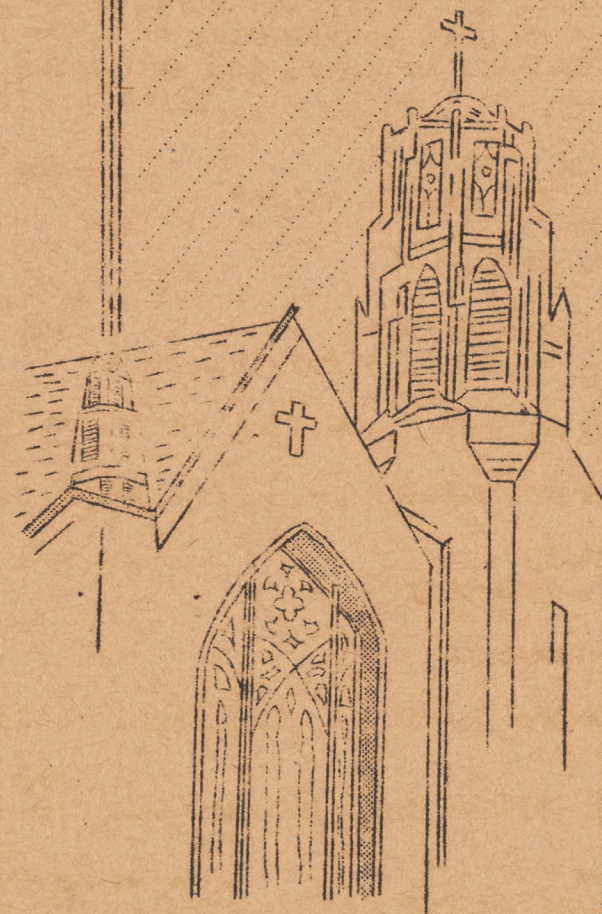

His life was so victorious
We asked him how it was achieved.
Had he no doubts? What were the great
Convictions that he had believed?
The old man seemed embarrassed, but Made answer: "Long ago I found
The world had little interest in
The doubts I offered to propound.
But met me with its challenge--'Tell us
What you do believe!'

"My creed

In those first days was very small,
But even then it served my need.
The path grew plainer when I ceased
To wear my doubts upon my sleeve
And faith grew stronger as I practiced
The simple truths I did believe."

BUILDING FOR ETERNITY

I'm building for Eternity,
The motto of my life shall be;
No flimsy structure of a day
That storm and flood may sweep away:
The buildings that I wish to raise
Are Living Temples for God's praise.

God's Holy Word lays down the rules,
And tells us how to use His tools;
Each precious stone of truth I'll lay
My Master's own appointed way;
And by the Spirit they will be Cemented for Eternity.

On Christ, the Solid Rock, I've laid
My own foundation, and He paid
For all materials that I use;
What He rejects, I too, refuse;
And when I plan for others too,
He must approve whate'er I do.

True heaven-born souls, 'tis my desire
May all be filled with holy fire,
That every one of them may be
God's builders for Eternity;
To God alone be all the praise
For Temples I may help to raise.

ONE HOUR WITH HIM

Lord, what a change within us one short hour
Spent in Thy presence will avail to make!
What heavy burdens from our bosoms take;
What parched grounds refresh, as with a shower!

We kneel, and all around us seems to lower;
We rise, and all the distant and the near
Stands forth in sunny outline brave and clear!
We kneel, how weak! we rise, how full of power!

Why, therefore, should we do ourselves this wrong,

Or others, that we are not always strong;
That we are ever overborne with care;
Anxious or troubled when with us is prayer,
And joy and strength and courage are with Thee?

THE ANNUNCIATION

God whispered, and a silence fell; the world
Poised one expectant moment, like a soul
Who sees at heaven's threshold the unfurled
White wings of cherubim, the sea impearled,
And pauses, dazed, to comprehend the whole;
Only across all space God's whisper came
And burned about her heart like some white flame.

Then suddenly a bird's note thrilled the peace,
And earth again jarred noisily to life
With a great murmur as of many seas.
But Mary sat with hands clasped on her knees,
And lifted eyes with all amazement rife,
And in her heart the rapture of the spring
Upon its first sweet day of blossoming.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight at the Jr. Christian Youth Fellowship, Dr. W. A. Squires will speak on his travel in the Holy Land and describe interesting sites centered around the life of Christ. Place: Rec. Hall 222 Time: 7:00

Following the regular devotional service, an informal fellowship hour will be held for Dr. and Mrs. Squires. All church young people are invited to attend this Sunday evening meeting. According to present plans, Dr. and Mrs. Squires who have been with us in the capacity of pastor and Sunday School helper, will be leaving sometime this week. The young people of the church wishes to gratefully acknowledge the work which they had done during the absence of Mr. Takeda. Wherever their work may take them after their departure from this camp, we certainly wish them a successful and fruitful ministry. May God bless them in their work.

On New Year's Day a special joint service will be held for the adults and young people at the 211 Christian Church. Rev. K. Takeda will deliver the message. Time: 10:00 A.M.

For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting Life.

John 3:16

THE SACRAMENT

"This is my body, which is given for you;
Do this," he said, "and break, rememb'ring me."

O Lamb of God, our Paschal off'ring true,
To us the Bread of Life each moment be.

"This is my blood, for sins' remission shed";
He spake, and passed the cup of blessing
round;
So let us drink, and, on life's fullness fed,
With heavenly joy each quickening pulse shall bound.

Some will betray thee---"Master, is it I?"
Leaning upon thy love, we ask in fear---
Ourselves mistrusting, earnestly we cry
To thee, the strong, for strength, when sin is near.

But round us fall the evening shadows dim;
A saddened awe pervades our darkening sense;
In solemn choir we sing the parting hymn,
And hear thy voice, "Arise, let us go hence."

Unto Christ our heavenly King, Alleluia!

But the pains which He endured, Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
Now above the sky He's King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as His love; Alleluia!
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!

HE LIVES

I serve a risen Saviour, He's in the world today;
I know that He is living;
Whatever men may say;---
I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of
cheer,

And just the time I need Him
He's always near.

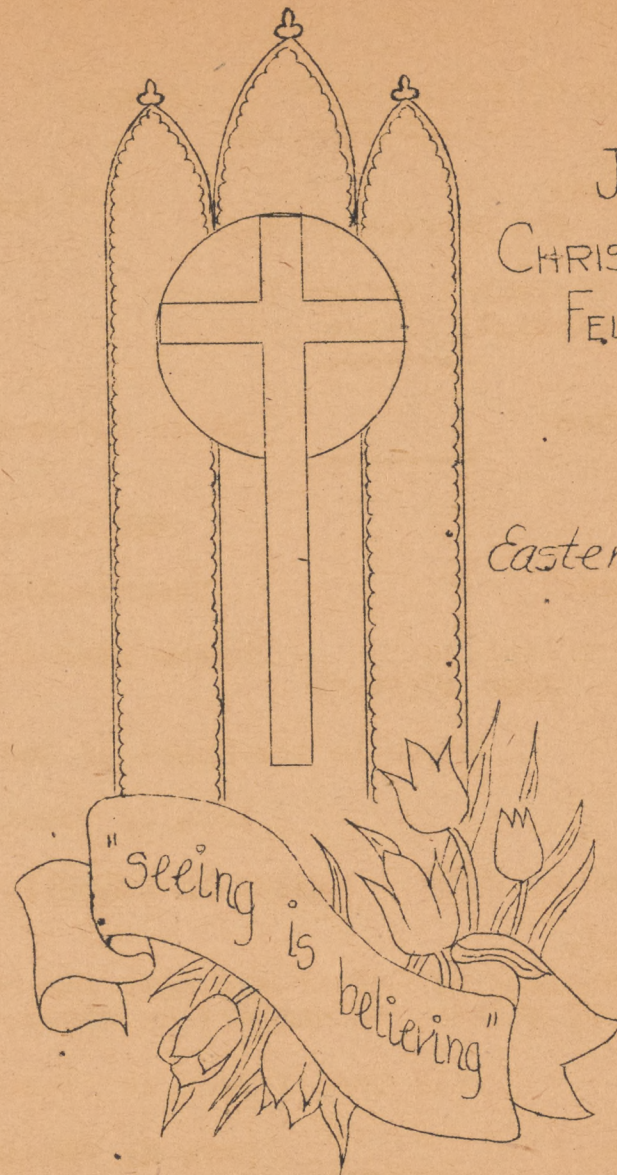

CHORUS:

He lives! He lives!
Christ Jesus lives today
He walks with me and talks with me
Along life's radiant way.
He lives! He lives!
Salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives?
He lives within my heart.

In all the world around me I see His loving
care,

And tho' my heart grows weary,
I never will despair;
I know that He is leading, thro' all the stormy
blast,
The day of His appearing will come at last.

Rejoice, rejoice, O Christian,
Lift up your voice and sing
Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ the King!
The Hope of all who seek Him,
The Help of all who find,
None other is so loving, so good and kind.

ALL THAT I NEED IS JESUS

All that I need is Jesus,
All that I need is Jesus;
For He so wondrously satisfies,
All my every need supplies.

All that I need is Jesus,
All that I need is Jesus;
When I am tempted I know He is near,
All that I need is Jesus.

Pvt. Ben Ohama and Pvt. Charles Hirokawa arrived in Poston on the day before Easter to visit their families. Both of them are enroute to Fort Meade, Maryland.

FATHER, TO THEE

Father, to Thee we look in all our sorrow,
Thou art the fountain whence our healing
flows;
Dark though the night, joy cometh with the morrow;
Safely they rest who in Thy love repose.

When fond hopes fail and skies are dark before us,

When the vain cares that vex our life
increase---
Comes with its calm the thought that Thou art
o'er us,
And we grow quiet, folded in Thy peace.

Naught shall affright us on thy goodness leaning,

Low in the heart Faith singeth still her song;
Chastened by pain, we learn life's deepest meaning,

And in our weakness Thou dost make us strong.

Patient, O heart, though heavy be thy sorrows!

Be not cast down, disquieted in vain;
Yet shalt thou praise Him when these darkened furrows,

Where now He plougheth, wave with golden grain.

The Lookout Committee is preparing an outdoor program for the Jr. Christian Youth Fellowship beginning this afternoon at 2:00 PM with a short hike along the stream to the north of the camp. The afternoon will be devoted to recreation and a devotional service will be held toward the evening. All members who are planning to attend the program are requested to meet at the 211 Church by 2:00 PM and bring their own lunches.

The membership drive sponsored by the Lookout Committee ends tonight!! Bring all your friends with you to the outdoor meeting.

The Missionary Committee is extending the time of the book reading contest to April 27. Three prizes will be awarded to the persons reading the most number of books within that time. Let us all participate by reading the many fine books on our church library shelf!!!

The regular weekly Bible study will be held at the 222 Church on Tuesday evening from 7:30 PM.

Mrs. Asada, a faithful member of our 222 Sunday school staff will leave Monday for Ontario, Oregon to join the Sakata family there. We shall miss her services and the fellowship we have shared with her.

On Monday of the past week, included among the many of our church members who returned to their former homes near Sacramento was Michiko Takeuchi. Our prayers go with both Mrs. Asada and Toshiko.

CHRISTIAN WORSHIP

Protestant leaders of the United States have joined in urging our people to observe Sunday, April 22, and Wednesday, April 25, as occasions for special prayers of intercession. The call stated:

As the Conference of the United Nations Convenes-----

LET US GIVE THANKS:

That the opportunity is now given to make a new beginning in the development of effective world community for the maintenance of peace with justice.

LET US CONFESS:

That we have been concerned too much with our own affairs, at times indifferent to the needs of others and unready to make sacrifices to prevent war and to insure peace.

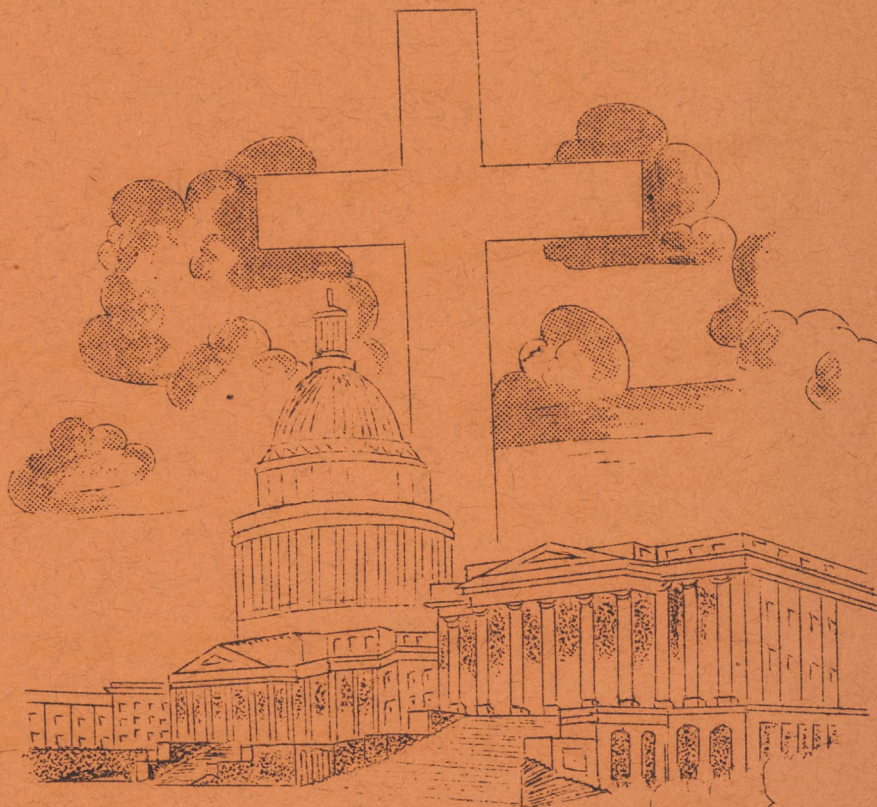

LET US PRAY:

That out of the suffering and sacrifices of our war-torn world there may be born a new willingness among men to work together for the common good.

That the Holy Spirit may give to the conference delegates both the will and the wisdom to fashion an organization which shall bind the nations effectively together for mutual protection and benefit in ONE FAMILY OF MANKIND.

That our government may be guided to accept its responsibilities to give the full support of the United States to all constructive agreements which the conference may achieve.

This morning's sermon topic was chosen at the request of the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church USA in conjunction with the Commission for Just and Durable Peace in view of the coming Peace Conference to be held at San Francisco from April 25th.

Tonight, Captain M. Kitaji will give an illustrated flannel graph talk to the members of the Jr. Christian Youth Fellowship. The meeting is being planned by the Lookout Committee under the chairmanship of Ruriko Harada. Bring your friends and attend tonight's meeting!!

The regular weekly Bible study will be held at the 222 Church on Tuesday evening from 7:30 P.M. John 7:1-53

Next Sunday morning Rev. J. T. Hartman of Phoenix will speak at our Church service. Remember the service and bring your friends!

Also, the 211 and 222 Sunday Schools will hold a combined service on the same morning in order to hear Mr. Hartman.

Relocation took two more church families on Tuesday of last week. Destined for Rochester, New York were Mr. and Mrs. Sano and daughter Frances of our Sunday School. Mr. and Mrs. Ohama left on the same evening to join their oldest son George in Lansdale, Pennsylvania. Pvt. Ben Ohama, who is enroute to Fort Leade, Maryland accompanied his parents. We wish the members of both families Godspeed.

Our heavenly Father, Thou hast enriched our lives with the joy and power of learning. From Thy wisdom comes all knowledge.

Wilt Thou grant Thy direction and blessing upon all schools where youth gathers to seek the better way of truth and understanding.

May teachers first find in Christian character the supreme aim of all teaching, and so impart the facts and principles of knowledge that Christ's life may be formed in those they teach.

May science shed more light on the old things of God so that teacher and taught may together walk in that path of learning that shineth more and more unto the perfect day of spiritual understanding. In Christ's Name. Amen.

God of all wisdom, grant us this day of Thy truth.

Lead us into closer fellowship with Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Master and Teacher, that we may know the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Upon schools, colleges, and all institutions where youth is in training, be pleased to bestow the guidance of Thy Holy Spirit.

Give us courage, give us patience; give us joy as we work for Thy Kingdom; forgive every doubt; keep us faithful; and Thine shall be the glory. Amen.

MY MASTER

I had walked life's path with an easy tread
Had followed where comfort and pleasure led
And then by chance in a quiet place
I met my Master, face to face.

With station and rank and wealth for a goal
Much thought for the body, but none for a soul,
I had entered to win life's mad race,
When I met my Master face to face.

I had built my castles and reared them high
'Til their towers had pierced the blue of the sky;

I had sworn to rule with iron mace,
When I met my Master face to face.

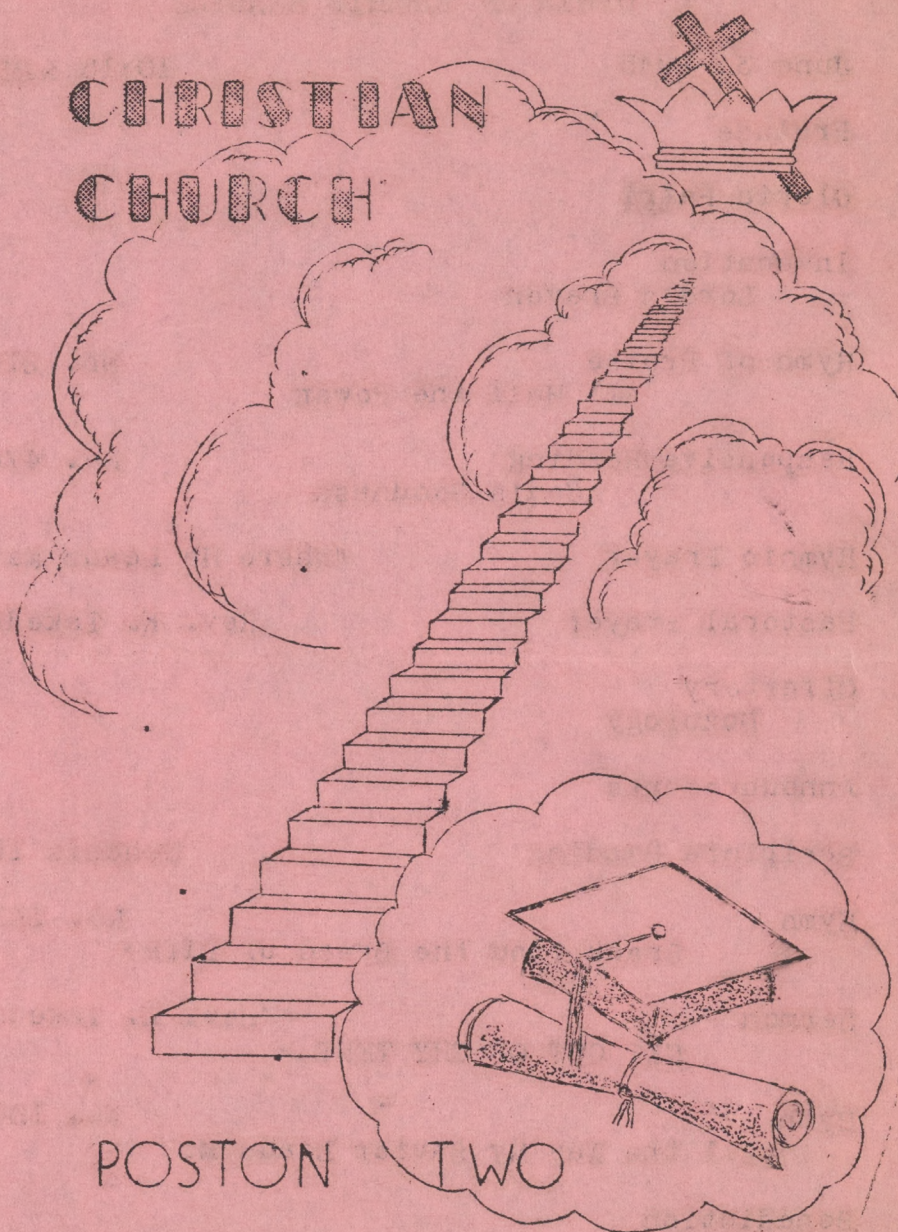

I met Him and knew Him and blushed to see
That His eyes, full of sorrows were fixed on me;
And I faltered and fell at His feet that day,
While my castles melted and vanished away.

Melted and vanished and in their place
I saw naught else but my Master's face
And I cried aloud, "O, make me meet
To follow the marks of Thy wounded feet."

My thought is now for the souls of men.
I have lost my life to find it again,
E'er since alone in that holy place
My Master and I stood face to face.

JUST FOR TODAY

Lord, for tomorrow and its need
I do not pray:
Keep me, my God, from stain of sin
Just for today.

Let me both diligently work
And duly pray,
Let me be kind in word and deed
Just for today.

Let me be slow to do my will,
Prompt to obey,
Help me to mortify my flesh
Just for today.

Let me no wrong or idle word
Unthinking say:
Set Thou a seal upon my lips
Just for today.

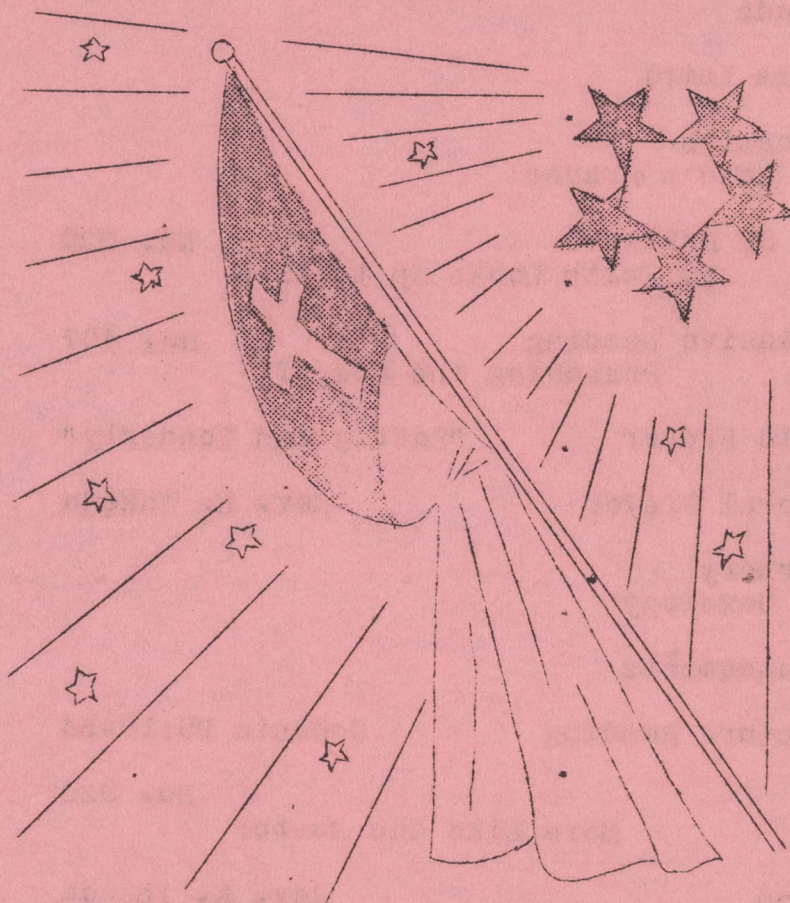

Let me in season, Lord, be grave,
Let me be gay,
Let me be faithful to Thy grace,
Just for today.

And if today my tide of life
Should ebb away,
Give me Thy sacraments divine,
Sweet Lord, today.

So for tomorrow and its needs
I do not pray
But keep me, guide me, love me, Lord,
Just for today.

SERVICE

There are strange ways of serving God;
You sweep a room or turn a sod,
And suddenly, to your surprise,
You hear the whirr of seraphim,
And find you're under God's own eyes
And building palaces for Him.
