Before the Commission to Ascertain & Settle Private Land Claims in California

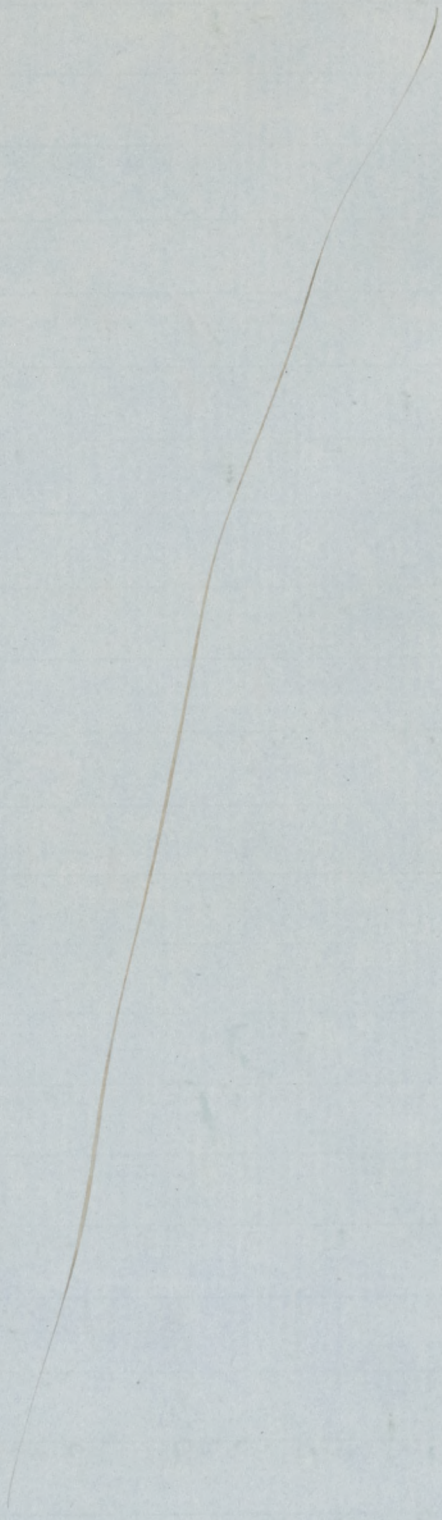

Petition

Doña Paula Sanchez, and Valencia the Unknown, William Cary Jones, Marcelina Felix de Sanchez and others, heirs and Assignees of the Late Doña Sanchez de Felix, give notice that they claim two undivided fourth parts of the Rancho of Buriburi in the County of San Francisco in said State. Said Rancho of Buriburi in the extent of four square leagues was granted by the Mexican Government to the Late Don José Sanchez deceased; and on his death passed to his children ten in number in equal undivided properties; of which said children were the said Doña Paula Sanchez de Valencia and the said late Doña Sanchez de Felix deceased.
The original papers of the said grant are not in the possession of these claimants; and they ask leave to produce such proof of its existence and contents as they may be able to procure, and such other testimony as may be necessary to establish the rights herein claimed.

Opinion by Commissioner
R. Aug Thompson,

The Rancho of Buiriburi of which the lands claimed in the present case form a part has already been confirmed by the Commission to the legal representatives of José Sanchez & Co. no testimony of any kind is offered in support of the separate claim filed by the present petitioners their application for a confirmation to them must therefore be rejected.
