2^d Question by Plaintiff -

Have you any knowledge of the book of records containing the grants of land by the Governors of Upper California for the year 1843? If you state what became of said book.

Answer.

A book of records containing grants of land in Upper California was put into my possession in the Spring of 1851 to be used as evidence in the suit of Leese & Pallye vs Clark then pending in the Superior Court of the City of San Francisco - Said book was in the Spanish language & came from the Archives of the Mexican Government of California then in possession of the Commanding General at Burecia & was delivered to me as an Officer of the Army for safe keeping -

After the book was used in evidence it was returned to me & was deposited in my Office in the City of San Francisco & whilst there the great fire of the 3rd & 4th of May 1851 occurred by which my Office & its contents including the said book were destroyed - I am not positive as to the date of the grants contained in said book but from my best recollection my impression is that they were for the years 1843 & 1844.

The claim in this case was rejected upon the ground that there was no proof of any survey or measurement of the land, or of or of any performance in all or even of the conditions of the grant. In the language of one of the claimant's attorneys, "There is no proof in the case that the claimant ever took possession of the land or performed the conditions. The grant on which the claim is rested bears date 12 June 1843. No testimony has been adduced to show that claimant ever went ^{on} or ^{into} the land or had ~~never~~ seen it. There is no evidence of any kind of any attempt to take possession of the land or fulfill any one of the conditions annexed to the grant, nor to offer any explanation why such possession was not taken, or such effort made. No case from the absence of all such testimony, has presented itself to our consideration which proves more clearly than the present, that the party had abandoned his claims before the Mexican power had ceased to exist, & was now endeavoring to resume it, from the enhanced value made the Government U. S."

And it may be the fact, although it may be admitted that until the denouement ment of the land, the right of the party concerned have been forfeited, still when he comes into a Court acting upon the principles of Equity, and after he has its interposition in his behalf good faith on his part is ^{essential} ~~not~~ sufficient to authorize such interposition Such seems to be the view of the Supreme Court in the Freeman case.

 The conveyance claimant has vested this claim on another ground, and with a view to evade the objection of a total failure on the part of the claimant to attempt to comply with either one of the conditions of the grant, or even to take possession of the land, contend that claimant was a minor in July 1846 when Mexico changed of Government took place - A witness was examined in the appeal made taken on the following question proposed to him viz "Are you acquainted with Jose Maria Freeman, the claimant in this case? If yes, state whether he was a minor or free age at the change of government, that is to say on the 7 July 1846? To this, the witness replied "I know he was not ~~at~~ of age but a minor." - It is contended therefore, that being a minor, no abandonment will be presumed against him, or it proved similar in every respect to other grants, and has annexed all the usual conditions. If the Government were imposed upon, a Court of Equity will subscribe to the suggestion that the grantee who thus deceived the Government, may be paid by the Government, he may be a minor and therefore not to be bound by the conditions of the grant.

In the 7th ~~sub~~ subdivision of 2^d section in (Smith's) civil law it is said down, "If a minor has given out that he is of age, and by producing a false certificate of the registry of his christening or by some other way, has made people believe that he is a Major, he cannot be released of any things into which he shall have engaged anyone by this surprise."

If therefore, the grant with conditions, ~~was~~ ^{by him} ~~was~~ ^{with the} delivered to the grantee and accepted ~~by~~ ^{with the} belief on the part of the Government that it was dealing with one upon whom a compliance with the conditions of the grant would be enforced, and such belief was induced by the conduct of the grantee the grant was fraudulent and the Court of Equity should enforce it.
But independently of this consideration there is another view of this case which in our opinion is conclusive in the claimant's favor.

It is true as contended for by the the counsel for claimant, that Minors are carefully protected under both the civil and common law, - That they neither will nor can be against a Minor, that contracts made by them, and conveyed as usual shall be in many instances, void, and in others, voidable - But in neither case has, the protection of - granted to infants, been converted from what it is intended to be a shield against others, into a weapon to be wielded by them infringement of others - Neither will permit a Minor to hold an estate without paying the ^{consideration} ration which was ^{to be paid} ~~conveyed for~~, nor have we been able to find a case where a Minor ^{who has} accepted an estate upon conditions, has been permitted to hold that estate free from stipulated conditions, and the performance of them during minority.

The colonization grant, under the Mexican law was made upon a consideration and conditions in which the public was interested, and the payment of that consideration by the fulfillment of the conditions was essential to the interest of the grantor.

In Gaffin v Gaffin 1 Sol. & Lf. 352 the principle is affirmed that "an

An infant cannot avail himself of his infancy to excuse the non-assertion of his right under an executory agreement made with his ancestor, where the immediate performance of his part of the contract is essential to the interest of the other contracting party. Where for instance, there is an executory agreement to grant a lease on one part, and a covenant to pay money on the other, and the tenant dies, leaving an infant heir, if this contract is to continue & existing during the whole term only, it will not be given to the landlord the benefit of that in consideration of which he stipulated to grant the lease.

Qui 353

+ Coke states the doctrine thus, (1 Inst. 240 b) + "Regencies, or laches shall be accounted to infants, for non entry, or claim, to avoid descent, yet laches shall be accounted to them for non performance of a condition annexed to the State of the land, for the laches of an infant, for non performance of a condition annexed to a State, either made to an ancestor or him."

... shall bar him of the right of the land forever."

In Cary v. Bette & Beman 543 the L^d Chan. held that if true infants are always presumed. But the Court never pretended to change the nature of infants, title. ~~When an~~ ~~estate is given to an infant upon~~ or to make that absolute, which was doubtful. When an estate is given to an infant upon condition, such as as an infant can perform, must be done by him; and infancy in such case is no excuse.

An infant is bound by conditions annexed to the title at common law, because he cannot deny, & therefore if the infant will have the estate he must observe the condition upon which it was granted.
Bac. Ab. Vol. 5, p. 112. Lastly an infant is bound by all conditions, & in an original conveyance whether he comes to the estate by grant or descent. Nil foregoing authorities establish that infancy is no protection in this case from the consequences of an undant when the condition is granted, and that such claim has evidenced not only abandonment

- must but not even an intention to waste or squander, right under the grant until a period ^{of time} which by its effect manifestly the intention to claim in consequence of the enhanced value of the land, the decree of the Board respecting this claim must be affirmed. A decree must be entered accordingly.
