To Madam Rosa Melchor of Baldomas:
 Under date of the 30th of the Month last past His Excellency the Governor has sent me a copy of the Grant to the Lancer called the "Conceal de Puellos" which was granted to you under date of the 7th of as claims have been made by the adjoining neighbcomplying with the Order of the Prefect of the first District dated 8th of May last past in which I am directed to confirm the titles of the Indians of this Valley to their Lances and in compliance with the letter of his Excellency I went to the place designated with two assisting Actuaries and in presence of Agreico whose land is adjacent to yours we began to measure the Lance with a Line 50 Varas in length, commencing at the land of Agreico we laid off twenty lines reaching nearly to that of Constanco, and being one thousand yards from East to West - and from the new fontana the large loose white stone in the direction of North to South we laid off twenty lines now being one thousand yards more, the said distance running a little beyond the ditch and reaching nearly to an Oak tree which is growing upon the brow of the Hill

These are the two thousand yards of land granted to you and which was measured in presence of your Son, Domingo - As your Attorney - Mariano Romero did

Opinion of the Board

The petitioners represent themselves to be the widow and children of Simon Casto deceased who is all agree by them to have been the owner of the property at the time of his death.

The original grant was made by Governor Gutierrez to the Neophyte Baldomas. It is made a part of the proof in the case and bears date March 7th 1836. No approval of the Comission is shown and whether the grantee was living on the place is recited also any patent after is not made to appear.

The title of Simon Casto is alleged in the petition to have been derived from said Baldomas the grantee "by operation of Law and proper means conveyances" without further specification.

The only witness whose deposition is filed in the case testifies that Baldomas sold the land to Simon Casto some fourteen years ago. Admitting that a sale of land in this manner and without deed or other writing to be good it could scarcely be contended that the vague expression contained in this deposition without a statement of the terms conditions price payment or circumstances could be regarded as sufficient to establish a conveyance of the title to real estate. A document is introduced by the claimant to show the official act of judicial possession of the premises (an act without which this grant could be invalid for want of boundaries and locative description) which shows that in January 1840 the family of said Baldomas was required as possessors of the property. The proof is clearly too indefinite to show that the title passed to Castro at the time referred to by the witness. And do I mean stand the claimants to rest upon this parole proof to establish a conveyance to Juan Castro. In this they rely on a document given in evidence purporting to be convey the premises in question to him dated on the 15th day of March 1842 - This instrument was not taken before a Notary or any public officer and has therefore none of the solemnity pertaining to a public or judicial writing - It purports to be made by "Marciano Romero for myself as her representative of my wife and in the name of my Aunt Doña Rosa from whom I hold full power as well as from those closely allied to them - There is no evidence given in the case which shows who Romero is, or that he had any interest in the premises nor is there any proof that the persons for whom he assumes to make the conveyance was in any manner invested with the title to the property or if they were, that he had any authority to act as their agent in making the conveyance - If by legal conveyance or by operation of law the interest of Doña Rosa the grantee of the premises descended to and became vested in Juan Castro, the claimants have failed to furnish the evidence of it and they are therefore not entitled to a confirmation

Now comes the said Appellant by her Attorneys Elean & Hartman and moves the Court to reinstate this case on the calendar for trial, and to vacate the order heretofore made dismissing said case for want of notice of intention to appeal, and for leave to file such notice of intention "in per tunc", on the grounds

- 1st Because no notice of motion to dismiss said case was ever served upon said Appellant or her Attorneys.
- 2nd Because said order dismissing said case was improperly made.
- 3rd Because said omission to file the notice of intention to appeal was caused by the willful and culpable negligence of the former counsel of the Appellant.

Mmanuel Castro of the City and County of San Francisco being duly sworn upon his oath says, that since the institution of proceedings in this case before the late Board of Land Commissioners, he has been the agent for the claimants and appellants in the case; that as such agent he made a contract with one William Carey Jones, Jr. to institute the proceedings and carry them through to a final termination; that since Jones did conduct the proceedings before the said Board of Land Commissioners, and after the rejection of said claim the said Jones neglected to give the proper notice of intention to prosecute said appeal as is required by statute.

Applicant further states that the claimants and appellants relied wholly on the said Jones to take all the necessary proceedings in order to bring said cause to a successful issue, as he was bound to do by his contract, and it was not until sometime after said Jones had quit this State, that claimants and appellants ~~had~~ <sup>were</sup> informed that said cause had been dismissed from this court for the want of notice of intention to appeal.

Applicant says that he is informed and verily believes that claimants and appellants have a good and well defined claim, which they are permitted to establish, provided this case is returned to the docket and they are allowed to file the proper notice of intention to appeal; and that if this court refuses an order to that effect the claimants and appellants will suffer irreparable injury, inasmuch as affiant is in firm and believed that the said William Carey Jones is insolvent, and unable to respond in damages, <sup>consequently</sup> by reason of his neglect of business.

Affiant further says it always has been the intention of claimants and appellants to appeal said case, and presents it to a final determination. And further affiant swears not.
